ermen Still Debating Special Tax Measures for Purpose With Only Two of the Four Proposals Passed.

The $600,000 Crisis Campaign unemployment emergency relief fund over its goal today, as verified pledges, added to earlier officially announced, brought the total of gifts to $637,561.68. The $68,850.35 subscription of International Shoe Co., its executives and employees, announced at 11 a. m., carried the campaign over the $600,000 line, previously $41,297.54 had been announced as the partial subscription of public employees, not including the Police Department. These subscriptions had not been audited, they were not included in the official total tabulated at 10:30 a. m., which was $2,012.55.

$21,000 From U. S. Employees. At the same time, too late for inclusion in the morning's official total, it was announced that the 99 Federal employees in St. Louis had subscribed $21,000, payable in monthly installments for six months, with the promise of the one amount for the following six months if the need continues. Most of the subscriptions were for 1 per cent of the employees' salaries. Other subscriptions reported at the same time as that of the International Shoe Co. were: Shapish Hardware Co., with all executives and employees, $37,693.55; Federal Insurance Co., all employees, $345; and Holy Rosary Catholic Church, $186.27.

$181,591 in Cash So Far. Of the more than $500,000 shown in the official tabulation, it was stated, 36 per cent, or $181,591, is in cash, the remainder being in pledges, mostly on a monthly basis for one year.

William R. King, associate director of the Crisis Campaign, said that, while some shrinkage is always to be expected in collecting subscriptions, he believed that 98 per cent of the amount pledged would be paid. "The employees who have made these subscriptions," he said, "are those who have kept their places through the depression, and they are dependent." A certain allowance is always made, in public subscription campaigns, for losses through death, removal of subscribers, or their inability to pay.

By over-subscribing the $600,000 goal, the public has urged the appeal of the Citizens' Committee on Relief and Employment, announced that the city would provide $600,000 through special taxation, but that the money must be matched by an equal sum raised by public subscription.

Two Tax Bills Passed. Now, with subscriptions exceeding the amount asked, the public can demand that the city match its contribution. How the city is going to do this, is not yet clear. Comptroller Nott, asked about the matter this afternoon, said the city would be able to provide the $600,000 if the amusement tax bill, now pending, is passed by the Board of Aldermen, in addition to the gasoline tax increase and parking lot tax measures, already enacted.

"The city administration is pledged to raise $600,000," Nott said, "and it is up to the Board of Aldermen to raise the other $600,000."

COMMITTEE TO REMAIN ON JOB ALTHOUGH CRISIS FUND HAS BEEN RAISED

WHEN it became apparent that public subscriptions would exceed $600,000, J. D. Perry Francis, general chairman of the Crisis Committee, issued the following statement on policy: "The Crisis Committee will stay on the job and see to it that they receive a report on every firm whose report is not on hand. They will carry out the original plans of the Crisis Committee. "Should the $600,000 be over-subscribed, the Crisis Committee will select three of its members to act as trustees for any and all amounts over $600,000, to be held in trust for the public and used by the Citizens' Committee for direct relief when called upon to do so."

The Citizens' Committee named to the Citizens' Committee on Relief and Employment, which is to disburse the money subscribed for relief of the destitute-unemployed.

RHODE ISLAND GOVERNOR SIGNS 3 PCT. BEER MEASURES

State No Longer to Arrest Brewers Who Are Still Subject to Federal Law. PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 1.—As far as Rhode Island's police officials are concerned, 3 per cent beer became legal today, and any one manufacturing, transporting or possessing liquor for his own use can not be prosecuted under State law, as a result of the signing by Gov. Norman S. Case of two bills, as the new bills passed by the General Assembly last week went into effect the Sherwood act, this State's enforcement act since 1922, automatically was wiped off the books.

In brief, the new State liquor laws do not exempt any one from prosecution by Federal men under terms of the national Volstead act, but insofar as State officials are concerned they define intoxicating liquors as those containing more than 3 per cent of alcohol by weight, which is approximately 3.75 per cent by volume. The offenses under the new act will be "manufacture for sale, possession for sale, possession for sale, or sale of intoxicating liquors."

HOUSE FORCED TO TAKE VOTE ON LIQUOR CONTROL PROPOSAL

145th Signature Obtained on Petition to Take Bill Out of Committee. WASHINGTON, March 1.—A House vote on consideration of a State and local liquor control plan was assured today when the wet bloc obtained the necessary 145 signatures on a petition to take the measure away from the Judiciary Committee.

The vote is expected to show the House leaning on prohibition for the first time in years. When it will be had remains to be decided. The first day on which it will be possible to bring the suggested constitutional amendment up for a vote, however, will be March 14.

A Texas Democrat, Representative Mansfield, was the 145th House member to sign. The petition had been resting on the desk at the front of the House chamber for several days.

SENATE INQUIRY IN STOCK MARKET DEALINGS ASSURED

BULLS AND BEARS
ALIKE TO GLASS

It's Gambling Either Way,

By PAUL Y. ANDERSON,
A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—A sweeping Senate investigation of operations on the New York Stock Exchange during the years immediately before and after the crash seems assured, as a result of developments in the Banking and Currency Committee today. The inquiry probably will cover the "bull" market which preceded the crash, as well as the "bear" raids which have followed.

At the close of an executive session Chairman Norbeck (Rep.), South Dakota, announced the appointment of a subcommittee which will determine whether Congress has authority to regulate activities on the exchange, and draft a tentative resolution asking the Senate for authority to make the inquiry.

Norbeck said some members of the committee behind closed doors had questioned the power of Congress to legislate on the subject, but it was the consensus that its authority under the Interstate Commerce clause of the Constitution is ample. He added that a majority agreed that an investigation was imperative.

"Gambling is gambling," he said. "It is not a crime, but it is a subject of short-selling," he was asked. "It will be broader than that. I think we will go into all the abuses of the exchange," he replied.

"It is rather difficult to draw any moral distinction between betting that it will go lower," interjected Senator Glass (Dem.), Virginia. "Gambling is gambling."

If this view prevails in the committee, a fight will be waged on the floor of the Senate. The administration wants the inquiry limited to the recent activities of a few professional "bear" operators, whom it suspects of keeping the market depressed. It fears that a more general inquiry would depress it still further.

On the other hand, many Democrats and Progressive Republicans believe that the "bulls" who ran the price of stocks up to unprecedented heights in 1928-29, are equally guilty with those who have made profits by keeping them down lately.

Subcommittee members chosen today to draft the resolution are Senators Walcott (Rep.), Connecticut; Buckley (Dem.), Ohio, and Steiwer (Rep.), Oregon. They will meet tomorrow, and expect to make a report to the full committee in a few days.

The decision to close the doors followed a half hour of confused public discussion over the question of hearing William R. Perkins, New York attorney, who has been advocating a legal curb on short selling.

Chairman Norbeck had invited Perkins to appear at this preliminary hearing to tell the committee why short selling should be investigated. But although Perkins was present when the session opened, Norbeck was not, and some members objected to hearing from the bulls without giving the bears their hearing.

"So far as I am concerned," remarked Senator Barkley (Dem.), Kentucky, "I am willing to listen to all the animals."

Senator Watson's suggestion, "But I don't see," objected Senator Watson (Rep.), Indiana, "how we can hold an investigation to determine whether we are going to hold an investigation, let us first get authority, then we can hear Mr. Perkins."

"But I haven't any opinion as to whether we should investigate," Barkley replied. "If Mr. Perkins can throw light on that subject, I would like to hear him before I vote."

"The trouble about it is that he might convince us we should investigate only the bears, whereas I am not sure that the bulls are not just as guilty," said Blaine (Prog-Rep.), Wisconsin.

"I assume we want to ascertain who is responsible for the stock market panic, regardless of bulls or bears," Barkley observed.

"It seems to me that we had better go into executive session to make up our minds," Senator Glass (Dem.), Virginia, remarked dryly. The motion was carried.

U. S. Military Experts Point Out Japan's Tactical Mistakes in Expedition Against Shanghai

View Actions as Strategy to Determine Whether Diplomacy or Arms Is Better Means of Fastening Hold on Manchuria.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—In seeking a reason for Japan's appeal to the League of Nations for a neutral zone at Shanghai, Washington military experts today looked to the Orient and then to Geneva, and took the cynical view that Japan is using the league and Shanghai as pawns in an involved Manchurian strategy.

The experts are convinced that Japan received more than she bargained for at Shanghai. What was planned as a minor skirmish became a major operation.

From a purely tactical standpoint, military experts say, Japan greatly underestimated the Chinese position at Shanghai. They compare the landing of Japanese forces on the Shanghai Peninsula with Winston Churchill's ill-fated Gallipoli campaign during the World War.

The experts, who have great respect for the Japanese war machine, believe that the Japanese strategy is to determine whether diplomacy or military strength is the better means of increasing power in the Far East.

Could Win Temporary Victory. The Japanese forces at Shanghai, the military men say, are in a precarious position. The Chinese have shown unexpected strength, and Japan must decide whether a military victory at Shanghai would be worth the cost. The experts agree that Japan could win at least a temporary victory on the peninsula if she was willing to pay the cost in men and money.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—In seeking a reason for Japan's appeal to the League of Nations for a neutral zone at Shanghai, Washington military experts today looked to the Orient and then to Geneva, and took the cynical view that Japan is using the league and Shanghai as pawns in an involved Manchurian strategy.

The experts are convinced that Japan received more than she bargained for at Shanghai. What was planned as a minor skirmish became a major operation.

From a purely tactical standpoint, military experts say, Japan greatly underestimated the Chinese position at Shanghai. They compare the landing of Japanese forces on the Shanghai Peninsula with Winston Churchill's ill-fated Gallipoli campaign during the World War.

The experts, who have great respect for the Japanese war machine, believe that the Japanese strategy is to determine whether diplomacy or military strength is the better means of increasing power in the Far East.

Could Win Temporary Victory. The Japanese forces at Shanghai, the military men say, are in a precarious position. The Chinese have shown unexpected strength, and Japan must decide whether a military victory at Shanghai would be worth the cost. The experts agree that Japan could win at least a temporary victory on the peninsula if she was willing to pay the cost in men and money.

On the other hand, many Democrats and Progressive Republicans believe that the "bulls" who ran the price of stocks up to unprecedented heights in 1928-29, are equally guilty with those who have made profits by keeping them down lately.

Subcommittee members chosen today to draft the resolution are Senators Walcott (Rep.), Connecticut; Buckley (Dem.), Ohio, and Steiwer (Rep.), Oregon. They will meet tomorrow, and expect to make a report to the full committee in a few days.

The decision to close the doors followed a half hour of confused public discussion over the question of hearing William R. Perkins, New York attorney, who has been advocating a legal curb on short selling.

Chairman Norbeck had invited Perkins to appear at this preliminary hearing to tell the committee why short selling should be investigated. But although Perkins was present when the session opened, Norbeck was not, and some members objected to hearing from the bulls without giving the bears their hearing.

"So far as I am concerned," remarked Senator Barkley (Dem.), Kentucky, "I am willing to listen to all the animals."

Senator Watson's suggestion, "But I don't see," objected Senator Watson (Rep.), Indiana, "how we can hold an investigation to determine whether we are going to hold an investigation, let us first get authority, then we can hear Mr. Perkins."

"But I haven't any opinion as to whether we should investigate," Barkley replied. "If Mr. Perkins can throw light on that subject, I would like to hear him before I vote."

"The trouble about it is that he might convince us we should investigate only the bears, whereas I am not sure that the bulls are not just as guilty," said Blaine (Prog-Rep.), Wisconsin.

"I assume we want to ascertain who is responsible for the stock market panic, regardless of bulls or bears," Barkley observed.

"It seems to me that we had better go into executive session to make up our minds," Senator Glass (Dem.), Virginia, remarked dryly. The motion was carried.

P. S. CO. OPERATED AT LOSS IN 1931, DEFICIT $66,149

President Clarke Issues Statement to Stockholders—Earned Profit of $509,592 in 1930.

$1,512,734 PUT BY FOR DEPRECIATION

Heavy Decline in Number of Passengers—Effect of Wage Cut Not Yet Fully Apparent.

A deficit of $66,149 resulted from the 1931 operations of the St. Louis Public Service Co., according to a preliminary statement sent to stockholders by Stanley Clarke, president. The annual meeting of stockholders is to be held March 22, after which the annual report containing details of the company's finances for 1931 will be made public.

The 1931 deficit compares with a net profit of $509,592 in 1930. The net operating income for 1931, after payment of operating expenses, taxes and depreciation, was $1,703,726. To this was added $32,022 from non-operating income. Interest on funded debt was $1,102,537 and on bank loans, $616,164, a total of $1,718,701. Other deductible expense was $83,136, resulting in the net loss reported.

The statement showed $1,512,734 set aside for depreciation which was available for use in preservation or protection of the property. The adverse operating results obtained, Clarke said, "can be attributed to the decline in passenger revenue. Your company, like other urban systems, suffered a large decrease in revenue passengers, resulting in a decline of $2,759,144 in operating revenue. Stringent economies held the decrease in net operating income to less than one-quarter of that sum. Wages were reduced, effective Oct. 16, 1931, 10 per cent, as a result of the decision rendered by a wage arbitration board, and officers' and department heads' salaries were reduced on a graduated scale up to 15 per cent. However, the full benefit of this saving in wages and salaries is not reflected in the operation, as this reduction was only in force two and one-half months during the year."

Total operating revenue in 1931 was $15,929,642, compared with $18,785,359 in 1930, a decrease of $2,755,717, or 14.8 per cent. Other figures for the two years are:

	1931.	1930.
Operating expenses	$9,748,275	$11,528,001
Depreciation	1,512,734	1,321,985
Interest	1,718,701	1,727,704
Taxes	1,102,537	1,102,537
Other	1,510,019	1,626,332

The decrease in taxes was due to a reduction in assessed value and partly to the fact that certain taxes, such as the mill tax, are based on volume of business.

The figures are for the entire business of the Public Service Co., including street cars and the yellow buses. Figures were not given for total number of revenue passengers carried, but as has already been told, these decreased, from 213,635,711 in 1930 to approximately 181,000,000 in 1931, a decline of 15 per cent.

ESCAPED CONVICT FOUND DIGGING TUNNEL FROM PRISON

Negro Within 5 Feet of Wall After Three Weeks' Work at Jefferson City.

By the Associated Press. JEFFERSON CITY, March 1.—Following discovery of a tunnel reaching within eight feet of the west prison wall, Missouri prison officials are questioning a group of convicts suspected of planning a wholesale delivery.

Working undisturbed for almost three weeks and listed as an "escapee," John R. Butler, Negro convict, was surprised while at work on the tunnel. Prison guards investigated misplacement of several machinery parts in a corner of the prison foundry and discovered the entrance which had been concealed by piling on it scrap iron and rubbish.

Butler, serving a 23-year term from St. Louis County for first-degree robbery, did not suffer from want of food and drink during his long stay in the narrow tunnel. An assortment of canned goods, bread and coffee had been smuggled to him. When discovered, he had enough food to last him at least another week. He worked by the light of an electric light which apparently was controlled by another convict during the day, who signalled the approach of prison guards. His implements consisted of a crowbar and bits of metal fashioned into a small shovel.

Both Butler and Jack H. Wilson, thought to be a "lookout" for the Negro, were placed in solitary.

Pipe Line Company Suit Remanded. CHICAGO, March 1.—The United States Circuit Court of Appeals today reversed Federal District Judge Charles E. Woodward who had dismissed receivership proceedings against the Missouri-Kansas Pipe Line Co. and Frank P. Parish & Co., its holding concern. The appeal Court remanded the suit of John E. Williamson of Chicago, a stockholder, for a further hearing. Judge Woodward ruled the suit involved internal affairs of the company with which the Federal Court could not interfere.

DR. RUDOLF A. VOGT'S DAUGHTER CONTESTS WILL

Suit was filed in Circuit Court yesterday by Miss Margaret Vogt, a minor, to set aside the will of her father, Dr. Rudolf A. Vogt, a dentist, who died last October. In his will he explained he made no provision for the plaintiff because she left him against his wishes, the whole estate being bequeathed to his widow, Mrs. Lotta May Vogt, 5633A Delmar boulevard.

Miss Vogt, who is a daughter of Dr. Vogt by a previous marriage, alleges that her father was influenced against her so that he was not mentally capable of making a will as affecting her rights. The suit was filed through her mother, Mrs. Ellen de Werthern, as next friend.

The petition sets forth that Dr. Vogt was possessed of a large amount of property, but no inventory listing the assets has been filed.

CHARGES DISMISSED AGAINST 3 HELD IN OPERATION OF LOTTO

Two Men and Woman Say Funds Were Sought for Christmas Baskets for Poor.

Charges of establishing a lottery, growing out of the operation of a lotto game at Gambinus Hall, 3631 Salena street, last Dec. 16, were dismissed by the State against two men and a woman, whose cases were called in the Court of Criminal Correction yesterday.

The defendants were John W. Oswald, manager of the hall; Mrs. Hermine Bauer, 200 Espenschied street, said to have been the caller at the game; and Robert Leiber, 1945 President street, president of the Lyon Boosters' Benevolent Society, which sponsored the game. The charges were nolle prossed on a showing that the game was held for the purpose of raising funds to supply Christmas baskets for the poor. A statement prepared by counsel for the defendants showed that the game netted but $60.50, while the expenses of the undertaking and the cost of food for baskets distributed to 45 families came to $261.25. The deficit was made up from the treasury of the society, it was stated.

POLICE FIND MAN HANGED

They Were Investigating His Failure to Appear in Court.

John H. Rasch, 53 years old, a carpenter of Kirkwood, was found dead last night hanging from a rafter in his home at 815 Cleveland avenue, by police who were seeking him after he failed to appear in the Kirkwood City Court on a charge of peace disturbance.

The charge had been placed against Rasch after his arrest recently in a street disturbance. He was on parole from a sentence of a year in the county jail at Clayton on a previous charge of disturbing the peace of his wife. When arrested on the first charge he slashed his wrist with a razor. Besides his widow, two sons survive.

U. S. INCOME TAX DEDUCTION SOUGHT ON RANSOM PAID

Ruling Awaited on Plea of C. W. Pershall, Granite City, Who Gave $40,000 to Kidnaping Gang.

Whether ransom paid to kidnapers may be listed for exemption in income tax returns is a question now before the Internal Revenue Commissioner at Washington.

The point has been raised by the tax return of Charles W. Pershall, wealthy Granite City grocer and banker who was kidnaped in February, 1930, and released later on payment of $40,000 ransom. Filed with Collector O. G. Addelman at Springfield, Ill., the return was disapproved by him on the basis of the exemption claimed by reason of the ransom payment, and was forwarded to Washington for final judgment by the department.

The Pershall return was the first of its kind ever received at Springfield and no precedents were available on which to base a ruling. Addelman made his decision on the ground that no provision of law or department regulations covered the claim.

First Such Claim Anywhere. So far as Addelman was able to determine, no such claim has ever been made before in other districts, so the decision of the Commissioner will set a precedent for guidance in receiving the returns of others of the numerous victims of kidnaping during the last two years.

Pershall disappeared on Feb. 19, 1930, while on his way to the Elks Club in Granite City to play cards. The police, unable to get full details from the family, learned he had been held for 46 hours in the hands of his captors.

On Feb. 25, questioning of George O. Blockburger, Granite City professional bondsman, real estate dealer and friend of Pershall, drew from him a full account of the ransom negotiations and the method of payment of the $40,000.

Blockburger declared the kidnapers got in touch with him by telephone, withholding their identities. He said that after he had notified the family and its attorney, the abductors had called his office several more times, giving him an opportunity to talk to Pershall himself.

$50,000 First Demanded. The kidnapers demanded $50,000, while Pershall protested he could pay only $15,000. Finally $40,000 was agreed on, Blockburger said. He related that he obtained the money, then awaited a call. When it came the caller directed him to drive to the outskirts of Granite City.

A man met him there, he continued, and told him to go to St. Louis over the Free Bridge. On the way across, he said, a man pulled alongside in a car and told him to go to Seventh street and Chouteau avenue. There, he continued, another car pulled up beside him as he parked, and a man in the car said, "Give me the money." He declared he handed over the money and the man and his companion drove south on Seventh boulevard. Later the family was notified Pershall was in Fort Worth, Tex., on a business trip, from which he returned a week later.

WARRANTS FOR THREE CHARGED WITH RUSSIAN JEWEL SWINDLE

Woman Says She Paid $500 for Supposed Gems of Aristocracy.

Warrants charging larceny were issued yesterday against two men who were identified by Mrs. Kate Wishnuff, 4569A McMillan avenue, as members of a trio who defrauded her of $500 March 25, 1929, by pretending to sell her jewels from the Russian aristocracy.

The men, Morris Klenner, alias Moise Lein, and Sam Harris, alias Bafonofsky, were arrested last week by University City police upon complaint of two women who became suspicious when they attempted to sell them jewelry.

Birdshot in Appendix.

WIFE OF HARRY LANGDON TELLS OF SUDDEN DEPARTURE

Awoke at Hotel to Find Him Leaving, Hasn't Seen Him Since, She Testifies.

By the Associated Press. WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., March 1.—Decision was reserved by Supreme Court Justice Joseph Morschauser today in the separation action of Mrs. Helen Walton Langdon of New Rochelle against Harry Langdon, motion picture comedian. The Court directed that Langdon appear personally in the case to be sure he understood the action. This ruling followed Langdon's nonappearance either in person or by counsel.

Mrs. Langdon testified to support her charge of abandonment. They were married at Beverly Hills, Cal., July 27, 1929. On Oct. 4, 1931, she testified, they were at the Salisbury Hotel, in New York City, and she awoke to find that Langdon had packed his bags and had donned his hat and coat. She said he told her he was leaving her and would not be back. She had not seen him since, she said.

A stipulation, signed by her counsel and Langdon, was offered, which provided she was to receive $150 a week for six months, after which the amount was to be increased to $200.

After the hearing, Mrs. Langdon told reporters that "I still love Harry and think I always shall."

STATE HEARINGS ON PROPOSAL TO REDUCE REAL ESTATE TAXES

"Field Days" for Interested Persons to Be Held on March 22 and 23.

By the Associated Press. JEFFERSON CITY, March 1.—General hearings on the question of whether real estate tax assessments in Missouri shall be reduced for 1932 taxes would be held here on March 22 and 23 before the State Board of Equalization for both the opponents and proponents of reductions.

The board, in setting the hearings today, did not limit the hearings to any specific assessment question but announced it would hold two "field days" for all persons and organizations interested in the realty assessments.

Individual members of the board have received requests from county officials or taxpayer organizations in several counties for reductions in assessments, varying from 10 per cent to 30 per cent, and a few requests against reductions have been received, particularly from school authorities in school districts where flat reductions of assessments from 10 to 20 per cent would result in financial embarrassment for schools now levying maximum school tax rates.

The hearings were set at the suggestion of Attorney-General Shartel, who has been advocating a flat reduction of about 20 per cent in real estate assessments for both city and farm property in recent speeches.

MEMPHIS PASTOR FIGHTS WIFE'S SUIT FOR DIVORCE

Dean Noel Testifies That Legal Separation Would Embarrass Him and Church.

By the Associated Press. MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 1.—The Very Rev. J. H. Noel, dean of St. Mary's Episcopal Cathedral, testified today that a legal separation "would be very embarrassing to me and my church."

"I love my children, I love my wife," he said, "I want a home, and I want my children to have a home."

Mrs. Ellen M. Noel is asking for a divorce on grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment, abandonment, non-support and wilful desertion. She testified yesterday that Dean Noel's affections declined steadily during the last few years of their married life, and that most of that time they had lived "as strangers."

The dean said today he knew his wife wanted a son, but he believed it would "seriously endanger her life."

Differences between them concern their views regarding the marriage relationship.

Dean Noel also holds the view that marriage is a sacrament that cannot be dissolved by court decree. The Noels have two children. They were married in 1916.

Bishop Warne, Retired, Dies.

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, March 1.—Bishop Francis Wesley Warne, a retired Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church, who was a missionary in India for 41 years, died last night from a complication of diseases at the age of 77. Bishop Warne was born in Erin, Ont., and received his education at Albert College, Canada, and at Garrett Biblical Institute, Evanston, Ill.

Aldermen, I hope the Aldermen will keep faith with the citizens who have done their part."

The amusement tax bill, placing a tax of 1 cent and up on admissions, is being fought by the amusement interests. Petitions for the defeat of the tax measure have been circulated in movie theater lobbies for several nights, and the opposition to the bill is to appear at a hearing next Monday afternoon. It was after a demonstration at such a hearing that the aldermen killed another of Noel's original group of four tax measures, the proposed tax on soft drink establishments.

The $502,125.55 total announced this morning was composed of the following amounts: "Iris, executives and employees, $229,955.25; special gifts, not including some executives listed with their firms, or such gifts collected by women, $78,084.50; women's division, $55,728.07; central division, covering small downtown firms, $22,765.93; professional division, $11,912.19; special headquarters, $8180.84; miscellaneous, $4321.93; church collections, $33.79.

The church collections were those of a few congregations only; the collections from the larger churches not having been reported. No railroad or public utility company has reported its subscription thus far. These concerns are being canvassed. Some of the largest business firms are also completing their canvasses, and are to announce their returns soon.

The contribution of the Federal employees, amounting to $21,000, was announced by Ernest R. Smith, head of the pure food and drug section, after a conference of the heads of Federal offices and bureaus, when the lists of various departments were reported. One item, reported to the City Hall headquarters in advance of the rest, was the $306.60 subscription of the Prohibition Office.

"Our people have decided to complete their pledges in six months," Smith said. "Then, if the present great need continues, they will subscribe the same for another six months."

$1566 from City Janitors. One of the notable items in the city employees' subscriptions, announced by Collector Koeln as chairman of that division, but not yet included officially in the committee's figures, is the gift of $1566 by the janitors of the city hall, Civil Courts building and old courthouse. These men, Negroes, some of them making only $75 a month, have pledged 1 per cent of their salary.

Church contributions listed today included: Church of Annunciation, Ladue Village, $42; St. Michael's Church, $15.35; Our Lady of Lourdes, $216; St. Mary and Joseph's Church, $20; West Florissant Baptist, $8.32; new Greek Orthodox Church, $37.

$22,027 from Fire Department. The partial report of the public employees' division, for $41,397.54, was in these items:

Fire Department, $25,027.80; Circuit Judges, $1975; Collector's office, all employees, including $500 from Collector Koeln, $2351.60; Circuit Clerk's office, all employees, $1572; Sheriff's office, $1468.20; Jury Commissioner's office, $152; City Plan Commission, $193.68; Probate Court, $665.64; court reporters, $444; court messengers, $180; State Labor Department, $102; State Grain Inspection, $655.88; State Oil Inspection, $72; State Auto License Bureau, $1065.50; Mayor's office, including $250 from Mayor Miller, $395.20; Zoological Board of Control, $718.80; Pure Food Department, $102; Compensation Commission, $186; St. Louis Court of Appeals, $529.80; City Art Museum, $235.80; Mortuary Department, $240.24; Public Administrator's office, $33.40; City Counselor's office, $684; License Collector's office, $880; Weights and Measures Department, $261; City Hall janitors, $756; Civil Courts building janitors, $450; old Courthouse janitors, $60; Building Commissioner's office, $780; smoke department, $278; fire and police telephone, $1200; plumbing inspection office, $414.

HOTEL CARD GAME HELD UP; ROBBERS FLEE WITH $263

Seven Men Lined Up in Room at Majestic, Forced Into Bathroom by Armed Gang of Four.

Seven men, all of whom said they were Tennessee merchants visiting in the city, were held up last night at a card game in a third-floor room at the Majestic Hotel, Eleventh and Pine streets, by four armed men who took $263.

The robbers entered the room shortly before 11 o'clock, lined the players against the wall, robbed them and then forced all into a bathroom. The night clerk at the hotel reported he saw four men of the description of the robbers walk casually through the lobby and escape in two automobiles.

The men robbed and the amounts they lost, according to police, are: Edward Homra, $35; Jack Homra, $40; Alex Homra, $42; and Harry Haddad, $45, all of Tiptonville, Tenn.; William Homra, Fulton, Tenn., $40; James Baddour, Covington, Tenn., $41; and Robert Gazele, Covington, $20.

Bus Agent Slugged, Bound, Robbed of $127 at Station. Patrick Ralph, an agent for the Pickwick-Greyhound Bus Lines, was robbed of $127 by two men, one carrying a revolver, who entered the station at 1805 Washington avenue early today. After striking Ralph in the face and robbing him, they bound his hands and feet and tied him to a cot in a back room. He was released by police summoned by a man who saw the robbers run out of the station and escape in an automobile.

Charles Greer, conductor of a Bellefontaine street car, was held up by two men who boarded the car at Ninth and Morgan streets and rode to O'Fallon street, taking $8.35 from him at the point of a revolver.

GLADYS GLAD SEEKING DIVORCE

Files Suit Against Mark Hefflinger at Nogales, Ariz.

By the Associated Press.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., March 1.—Mark Hefflinger, New York newspaper columnist, said last night that his wife, Gladys Glad, show girl, had filed suit for divorce in Nogales, Mexico.

"Yes, it's true," Hefflinger admitted, "but that's all I can say just now. We'll be good friends, and all that, but Gladys has filed suit and that's that."

WOMAN CHASES THIEF, 1850 COUNTIES GET

FAILS TO STOP HIM

AID FROM RED CROSS

Chairman Payne Says Hoover

Community Chest Plan Applied Only to Cities.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—

Chairman John Barton Payne of

the American Red Cross told the House Agriculture Committee today that the President's plan for raising community chest funds for unemployed left the rural areas

without organized help and that his organization was lending a hand.

"The President's plan for raising community chest funds applied

only to cities of 25,000 and over,"

Payne said. "It left the rural areas without any organized help.

We felt that was a very large order for the Red Cross, but we sent out field representatives and organized

these areas.

"We have been carrying on such organizations in 1850 counties in every state. That is about half the country."

A Senate bill to release 40,000,000 bushels of Government wheat to the Red Cross for relief distribution was approved today by the committee by a 15-to-6 vote. The action reversed a previous rejection of the measure, 14 to 9.

The bill was amended to provide that part of the wheat may be used for livestock feeding in areas in which crops had failed. This applies particularly to the Dakotas,

Nebraska, Montana, Iowa, Wyoming, Colorado and New Mexico.

The measure would allow the Red Cross to requisition the wheat from time to time as needed, with a maximum limit of 40,000,000 bushels.

Payne, testifying on the Norbeck

bill to use 5,000,000 bushels of Farm Board wheat to help those in crop-failure areas of the Northwest, said his organization was willing to distribute the grain if it would not have to bear the expense of distribution.

"The Red Cross will not favor or oppose any legislation," he said.

"We will accept a commodity allotment from the Government, but we will not accept a cash donation."

The Norbeck measure is designed to aid drought and grasshop-

per-stricken areas, chiefly in Montana, the Dakotas, Nebraska and Washington.

Payne said his organization had expended $52,000 in livestock feeding and had handled 400 carloads of feed in South Dakota and 1000

in Nebraska.

Payne also testified that railroads had indicated if the Red Cross undertook livestock feeding on a large scale they no longer will carry such freight free of charge.

NORTH CAROLINA FOREST FIRES

Blaze Rages on 100-Mile Front in Western Mountains.

By the Associated Press.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., March 1.—

Forest fires raged at scattered points along a 100-mile front in the mountains of Western North Carolina early today.

In McDowell County great rings

of flame, driven in the face of high winds, had swept over hundreds of acres of winter-dry growth. On Linville Mountain 100 men sought to halt the advance of a wall of flame

three miles long, while a similar blaze on Wildcat Mountain was left to burn unchecked. Bryson City reported that flames in the nearby

part of the Great Smoky Mountain

National Park had been brought under control after burning 100 acres and one home.

RAILROADS SEEK $221,579,190 IN LOANS FROM U. S.

I. C. C. Has Approved $51,544,175 Credit Extension So Far From Reconstruction Corporation.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—Railroads have applied to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for loans aggregating $221,579,190. This was disclosed by announcement of approval by the Interstate Commerce Commission of immediate loans of $42,871,375 to 11 railroads and announcement that 12 other carriers had applied for $75,423,750. Loans approved for railroads now total $51,544,175. Most of the loans approved by the commission are to be made by the corporation for only a few weeks or months, although the notes will be for two or three years. Roads eligible to get loans from the Railroad Credit Corporation are being required to give irrevocable orders on the credit organization for money as soon as the railroad created company gets funds from freight increases recently granted. They also are required to pledge bonds and stocks as security.

In only one instance has the commission approved the entire amount asked. Approval has been withheld for those portions not needed immediately to pay fixed charges and maturing obligations. The Alabama, Tennessee & Northern Railroad is the only line granted all it asked for. It sought $275,000 to pay loans, taxes and installments on bridges and the loan was approved.

New applications received by the commission include $11,727,750 for the St. Louis Southwestern, which last week applied for a bond issue to secure the loan; the New York Central, $7,000,000 to finish work started in New York City; the Georgia & Florida for $1,000,000 to refinance receivers' certificates and the Aberdeen & Rockfish for $127,000 to meet immediate obligations.

The Interstate Commerce Commission today approved loans from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to the Western Pacific Railway aggregating $2,102,000. The railroad had applied to the Railroad Credit Corporation for a loan of $1,303,000 to meet fixed charges, but the railroad organization is without funds. An additional $799,000 was approved to complete work already started.

THREE EUROPEAN BROWN BEAR CUBS BORN AT ZOO

They Are Still in Cave, but Keeper With Flashlight Gets Sight of Them.

The Zoo has three European brown bear cubs, born some time during the winter. Fred Boeding, keeper in charge of the bear pits, announced today.

"There are two females in the hibernating cave with the cubs," Boeding said, "and so far we've been unable to tell whether the young belong to one or both of them. But we got a flashlight the other day and saw the three youngsters."

Sounds from the hibernating cave had convinced Zoo officials for several weeks that at least one of the two females had young. However, inasmuch as the passageway into the cave is low and narrow, Zoo Director Vierheller declined to let any of the keepers risk their lives by going in to find out. Boeding said he had no idea how long it would be before the females and cubs appeared in the open.

SUCCESSOR TO SHERIFF FARLEY

John E. Sheehy of Tammany Hall Gets New York Post.

By the Associated Press.

ALBANY, N. Y., March 1.—Gov. Roosevelt has named John E. Sheehy, Democratic leader of the Fifteenth Assembly District of New York, as Sheriff of New York County to succeed Thomas M. Farley, removed from office recently by executive order.

A list of 22 indorsees of Sheehy given out by Roosevelt included James W. Gerard, former Ambassador to Germany; Joseph E. Rieder, publisher of the Journal of Commerce, and Carroll Hayes, former member of the legal staff of Investigator Samuel Seabury. Sheehy, like Farley, is a member of Tammany Hall. His name was one of two sent to the Governor by John F. Curry, leader of the organization, as a recommendation for a successor to Farley.

NIGHT CLUB BOAT SEIZED

11 Persons Arrested on Gambling and Liquor Charges.

By the Associated Press.

LAKE CHARLES, La., March 1.—Seizure of the $100,000 night club boat Harry Lee and the arrest of 11 persons aboard in raids aimed at curbing violation of prohibition and gambling laws were disclosed yesterday by Federal and State authorities. Ten Federal agents and four Deputy Sheriffs participated in the raid early Sunday morning.

The Harry Lee is a river steamer remodeled into a dance hall. It had been operating along the Louisiana coast for several months.

HONOLULU POLICE HUNT FOR ASSAILANT OF WOMAN

Sailors Patrol Streets Following Attack on Wife of Machinist on U. S. Submarine.

By the Associated Press.

HONOLULU, March 1.—Sailors today patrolled Honolulu streets as a result of recent assaults upon women.

Police continue their search for the man who assaulted Mrs. Kathleen Hope, wife of a machinist on the submarine S-28, in her home Saturday night after robbing her of $4.50. Two men are under arrest on suspicion, one a paroled convict who had served time for a similar offense. Five others, including Edward Wong, Chinese first arrested as a suspect, have been released. Meanwhile efforts were made by the defense to postpone the trial of Mrs. Granville Fortescue, Lieut. Thomas H. Masie, her son-in-law, accused of the murder Jan. 8 of Joseph Kahahawai, one of five suspected assailants of Mrs. Masie. She was attacked last September. The trial is set for March 10.

CHICAGO, March 1.—Clarence Darrow decided today to participate in the defense of Mrs. Granville Fortescue, Lieut. Thomas H. Masie and two enlisted men, accused of second degree murder at Honolulu. He announced his decision after a conference with his physician. He will leave about March 15.

PENDERGAST MEN OUT - MANEUVER LOCAL DEMOCRATS

Use Wilson for Governor
Instead of Smith Vote as Basis for Selection of Delegates.

By CURTIS A. BETTS,
A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, March 1.—The Pendergast organization of Kansas City and Charles M. Howell, retiring chairman of the Democratic State Committee and candidate for the nomination for United States Senator, dominating the committee meeting here yesterday, out-manuevered the St. Louis Democrats and gave to Kansas City and rural Missouri a distinct advantage in the State convention to be held in St. Louis March 28.

By use of the Wilson-for-Governor vote in 1928, instead of the Smith-for-President vote, as the basis of representation in the convention, the number of delegates was made 2927, instead of 2649, and the number of St. Louis delegates was decreased 55, while the number outside St. Louis was increased 333, Jackson County (Kansas City) getting 56 of them.

If the Smith vote had been taken as a basis, with one delegate for each 250 votes cast for Smith, St. Louis would have had 795 delegates in the convention, and the remainder of the State 1944, Jackson County getting 336. By taking the Wilson vote with one delegate for each 250, St. Louis will have 650 delegates and the remainder of the State 2277, Kansas City getting 442.

Convention March 28.
The maneuvering seemingly was overlooked by the St. Louis members of the committee, who offered no objection to the plan of representation proposed. The only contest which developed was over the date on which the convention was to be held.

The Pendergast-Howell manipulators, proceeding on the theory that an early convention would be of some advantage to former United States Senator James A. Reed in his aspirations for the presidential nomination, proposed that the convention be held March 17. This was opposed by a group which, while not objecting to an instructed Missouri delegation for Reed, was not disposed to go out of its way to aid him. This group attempted to delay the convention until May, or at least to postpone it to a time not earlier than the latter part of April. The Pendergast-Howell forces had the votes in the committee to do as they pleased, and would have fixed the convention date for March 17 had it not been discovered that that would not give sufficient time for the required meetings to elect delegates. The date of March 28 was fixed as the earliest possible time at which the convention could be held.

St. Louis, Springfield and Joplin were the only cities asking for the convention, Excelsior Springs, Columbia and Marshall dropping out after it was decided there would be approximately 3000 delegates, neither of those cities having hotel or convention hall facilities sufficient to care for a convention of that size.

Meeting at Coliseum.
In the voting it was apparent that St. Louis had a lead, and before the vote was announced St. Louis was chosen by acclamation. Lon Sanders, representing the Convention Bureau of St. Louis, announced that the Coliseum would be used.

As had been anticipated, Clyde W. Greenwade of Springfield was elected chairman to succeed Howell, by acclamation. There had been some early opposition to him on the ground that he was the selection of Howell and the Pendergast organization, but none of the candidates except Bennett Clark for the senatorial nomination, voiced any objection in the preliminary conferences to his selection, and no opponent was brought out against him.

The early convention date was agreed to after Ed S. Villmoare of Kansas City, representing Reed, told delegates that it was desired to have the Missouri delegation instructed early so that fact could be used by Reed's friends in other states in lining up support for him, and in attempting to prevent instructions for other candidates.

Senator Dearmont to Speak in 24th Ward Tonight.
State Senator Russell L. Dearmont of Cape Girardeau, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor, will speak tonight at a Twenty-fourth Ward Democratic meeting in Big Club Hall, 5200 Shaw Avenue.

The meeting has been arranged by the ward committeeman and committeewoman, John P. English and Mrs. Emelle Holliman, as a Dearmont meeting, and English said he expected the official ward organization to adopt a resolution endorsing Dearmont's candidacy. If this is done, it will be the second ward in which the organization has abandoned support of Dearmont's opponent, Francis M. Wilson, and thrown its influence behind the Cape Girardeau Senator. The Eleventh Ward organization endorsed him a week ago.

Jacob M. Lashly also will speak.

FOX HOLDING COMPANY IS PUT IN RECEIVERSHIP

General Theaters Equipment,
Inc., Had Previously Rescued
Film Corporation.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, March 1.—Harley L. Clarke, Middle Western utility man, who in 1929 stepped into the breach to save William Fox's film company from impending bankruptcy, has announced that his company, used in the rescue, had found itself forced to go into re-ceivership.

The company—General Theaters Equipment, Inc.—of which Clarke is president, holds a controlling interest in Fox Film Corporation. It acquired that interest in 1930, when it helped to stave off receivership action against the Fox company.

Announcement that receivership action had been taken against General Theaters Equipment, Inc.,
was made yesterday at Wilmington, Del. Clarke explained that the Equipment company had finally given consent to the receivership
"in the interest of conserving the assets of the company pending the development of a contemplated reorganization."

Unable to Earn Dividend.
The principal factor leading to receivership lay in the inability of Fox Film Corporation to earn enough money with which to maintain its dividend on the common stock. The Clarke company held more than 2,000,000 shares of the film company stock and 160,000
shares of Fox Theaters Co. stock.
Clarke explained that the receivership for General Theaters Co., Inc., would not affect any of its controlled companies.

"As the General Theaters Equipment, Inc., is a holding and not an operating company, none of the companies in which General Theaters Equipment, Inc., has controlling holdings is adversely affected by these receivership proceedings. These companies, other than the Fox interest, are: International Projector Corporation, National Theater Supply Co., J. E. McAuley
Manufacturing Co., Theater Equipment Acceptance Corporation, Strong Electric Co., Ashcraft Automatic Arc Co., Hall & Connolly, J.
M. Wall Machine Co., Fearless Camera Co., and the Cinema Building Corporation.

Clarke attributed the present
plight of General Theaters Equipment, Inc., to the dwindling of motion picture receipts—particularly the theater divisions. The company's interests, while inclusive of motion picture production, exhibition as well as theater exhibition divisions, suffered their greatest losses through the reduction of theater admissions. He said that the motion picture business has holding its own at present, and he expressed confidence in its long term outlook.

General Theaters Equipment,
Inc., had on Dec. 31, he said, a total of $15,000,000 notes payable and other obligations. Chase National Bank, which obtained large banking interest in the Fox companies, was thought to hold a substantial part of the company's bank loans.

Earnings of General Theaters Equipment, Inc., in 1931, showed a loss of about $900,000 exclusive of the $2,200,000 received in dividends during the year from its holdings of Fox Film Corporation stock. These dividends were discontinued in the last half of the year.

Clarke said that work was being hastened on a plan for the early reorganization of General Theaters Equipment, Inc. Committees have been formed to represent the company's bondholders and the preferred stockholders headed respectively by Arthur H. Looney, president of the Equitable Trust Co.,
since merged with Chase National,
and John W. Prentiss of Hornblow-er & Weeks.

"The interest on the large indebtedness of the corporation constituted mainly in connection with financing of the purchase of Fox
A and B stocks cannot be paid while those stocks are unable to pay dividends," he said in explaining the need for reorganization.

TWO WEEKS FOR FILING INCOME TAX RETURNS

U. S. Revenue Collector Issues
Warning to Avoid Last-Minute Rush.

Collector of Internal Revenue Becker today issued a warning that only two weeks remain in which Federal income tax returns may be filed without penalty.

Returns filed after midnight
March 15 are subject to a penalty of 25 per cent and interest at 1 per cent a month. Failure to file

before that time forfeits also the privilege of making quarterly payments of taxes.

Becker points out that taxpayers making returns at this time are assured of prompt individual attention, which will not be possible latter. The Internal Revenue offices, at 233 Federal Building, are open until 4:30 o'clock and, beginning next Monday, will be open until 5 o'clock, Sunday excepted. On the last day for filing without penalty, the offices will be open until midnight.

Federal income tax returns have been coming in slowly, because Collector Becker thinks, of the suggestion that some changes involving exemptions would be enacted by Congress to apply to 1931. No changes in rates or exemptions have been made, and the Bureau of Internal Revenue has issued instructions that returns are to be made on the same basis as those of last year. Taxpayers are also urged to take care to avoid mathematical errors in their returns.

State income tax returns must be filed with the Assessor at City Hall not later than March 15. State income taxes become delinquent if not paid before June 1.

SUIT TO LIQUIDATE 29 PCT. OF STOCK OF MISSOURI LIFE

Court Orders Company to Show Why Receiver for Inter-Southern Interest
Should Not Be Named.

An order to show cause why a receiver should not be appointed to liquidate the 29 per cent interest of the Inter-Southern Life Insurance Co. of Louisville, Ky., in the Missouri State Life Insurance Co. was issued by Circuit Judge Norton yesterday in a suit filed by Harvey H. Sims, a Missouri State Life stockholder. The order is returnable March 10.

Sims attacked the purchase for $2,040,000 of stocks, bonds and mortgages by Missouri State Life from Inter-Southern, in May, 1930, alleging that a large part of the securities have little or no value and that Inter-Southern has refused to keep an agreement to buy them back and Missouri State Life has failed to force the repurchase. Sims, a contractor residing at 88 Arundel place, Clayton, named both insurance companies as defendants. He is represented by the law firm of Fordyce, White, Mayne & Williams.

Interests headed by James E. Caldwell and his son, Rogers Caldwell of Nashville, Tenn., controlled Inter-Southern at the time of the deal. The Post-Dispatch related in detail last December how the cash received from Missouri State Life helped consummate the sale by the Caldwell family of about 115,000 shares of Missouri State Life stock to Inter-Southern. The cash was used to pay off bank loans for which the Missouri State Life stock had been pledged as security.

Wants Stock Impounded.
Sims asks in his suit that an accounting between Inter-Southern and Missouri State Life over the securities be ordered and that Inter-Southern be required to buy the securities back in accordance with it. He also requests the Court to impound the 145,000 shares of Missouri State Life stock, or 29 per cent of that company's capital, belonging to Inter-Southern, and that in the meantime the companies be restrained from making any transfer of this stock.

At the time of the deal, the Sims petition avers, the Caldwell family and Inter-Southern controlled Missouri State Life and the Caldwell family dominated the Nashville (Tenn.) Trust Co. The suit alleges that the Caldwell family sold the bonds, stocks and mortgages in question to this trust company, about May 21, 1930, at "exorbitant prices," and that about six days later the Caldwell family caused the trust company to assign the purchase contract to Missouri State Life.

Except for a small amount which has been paid off, the securities remain in Missouri State Life's possession, the suit states. In the reorganization of Missouri State Life last January, which followed a sharp contest between factions of large stockholders, Inter-Southern gained domination of Missouri State Life, Sims charges. In support of this he points to the election of Harry S. Tresselt as executive vice president and M. J. Dorsey, C. G. Arnett (president of Inter-Southern) and two other men as directors, all of whom, Sims says, are directors of Inter-Southern.

Hillemann Taylor, who was president of Missouri State Life when the Inter-Southern securities were purchased, resigned during the stockholders' controversy. Federal Judge Charles L. Dawson of Louisville was made president in his place but has not yet resigned from the bench to come here. It was said today he might arrive in about two weeks.

Says Company Faces Loss.
The contract made by Inter-Southern provided that Inter-Southern would buy back any of the securities at the same prices, within 12 months, Sims avers. He alleges that Missouri State Life found many of the securities to be worthless or nearly so before the year expired and demanded that Inter-Southern take them back, but that Inter-Southern has refused to do so. If the agreement is not carried out, Sims charges, Missouri State Life will lose almost the whole purchase price. He asserts there is collusion to prevent the return of the securities. Sims asks the impounding of Inter-Southern's stock in Missouri State Life for the benefit of the latter company and claims that Inter-Southern is threatening to transfer its stock to defeat any judgment.

Allen May, vice president and general attorney of Missouri State Life, said today that Inter-Southern had deposited its Missouri State Life stock with Kentucky insurance authorities as part of its legal reserve. He related that nothing came of a demand by Missouri State Life in June, 1930, that the securities be bought back, but added that the directors felt nothing could be accomplished by legal action at this time. He questioned whether the securities were nearly or altogether worthless, saying some of the mortgages had been reduced and others paid off. May asserted that little or no loss might be suffered.

Jerome F. Duggan, a stockholder in Missouri State Life and a lawyer, filed suit here Dec. 14, asking removal of certain directors and an accounting in connection with the Caldwell-Inter-Southern security deal. The case is pending.

Now St. Louis Oil Dealers Bonded to Protect you from Dangers of OIL SUBSTITUTION

Selected Dealers join with Pennzoil Company to Safeguard St. Louis Motorists

Nothing causes more trouble and dissatisfaction than oil substitution. You pay for something you're not getting. You ask for good oil and get inferior oil. You believe your motor is safely lubricated—actually it's piling up repair bills.

Read the statement of the Better Business Bureau in the adjoining column. See what an unbiased, independent organization says about the dangers of oil substitution.

Substitution Menace Banished

For years, reputable dealers have looked for a way to identify themselves—to show you where you could buy oil with complete safety. Now, a group of the city's best dealers have joined with The Pennzoil Company to give you this protection. They absolutely guarantee that you'll get Pennzoil when you ask for it—and each of them has posted a $1,000.00 Bond to back that guarantee. This $1,000.00 Bond identifies the pick of the dealers in this city. They are men of outstanding reliability and honesty. They have bonded themselves just like bank presidents and cashiers.

They are dealers you know you can trust.

Gives New Safety from Repairs

These dealers know that the modern motor cannot be fully protected by poor oil. They know that substitution is more dangerous than ever in today's cars. Therefore these leading dealers handle the best oil money can buy—Tough-film Pennzoil. They sell and recommend it because it is guaranteed to cut the cost of running your car—to improve performance—and to give hundreds of extra miles per filling.

The "Bonded Pennzoil Dealer" sign identifies the leading dealers who offer this new protection. It marks them as dealers who put your satisfaction above a few cents of stolen profit. Look for their sign—trade with dealers who have bonded themselves for your protection against the repair bills and damage oil substitution.

BETTER BUSINESS BUREAU TELLS DANGER OF OIL SUBSTITUTION

... Substitution hurts everyone who comes in contact with it. The motorist who orders and pays for a particular brand of oil is defrauded because it is his inherent right to receive what he asks for. If the oil substituted is of poor quality (and it usually is), his motor may be damaged to the extent that he will suffer severe monetary loss as well as being cheated in the price of the oil...

... In most cases where substitution is being practiced the dealer substitutes a cheaper oil than that specified. What is the result? The motorist, believing that he has the proper oil in his crank-case, may do these things to his car:

Smash the connecting rods; break the crankshaft; "freeze" the pistons; ruin the cylinders; or bring on any number of troubles that mean big repair bills, or even dangerous accidents. Poor oil is bound to cause excessive wear and tear on every moving part...

Against Oil Substitution

[Dealer]
The Dealer hereby agrees that he will furnish no other motor oil or substitute for Pennzoil when said Pennzoil is requested by any user of motor vehicles and if the Dealer should furnish or cause to be furnished any other oil or substitute for Pennzoil when so requested to furnish Pennzoil, then and in that event the Dealer will pay to the Company for such breach of this contract the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), as liquidated damages and not by way of penalty.

EFFORT TO SPEED UP MARKET ST. WIDENING

Improvement Association Is Formed in Hope of Pushing Work Through.

The Lower Market Street Improvement Association was formed yesterday, at a meeting at the American Hotel, to seek quick action by the city in carrying out the widening and paving of Market street. About 15 persons were present, electing Albert F. Schmidt, an investment broker, president, and Henry J. McNichols, a furniture dealer, secretary. The association will invite the Board of Estimate and Apportionment to meet with it next Friday.

McNichols declared the city should advance the money for damages for property to be taken from the bond revolving fund, to facilitate action. He said the Blanke Real Estate Co., owning property at the southeast corner of Seventh and Market streets, had lost $72,000 in rent and about $28,000 in taxes and insurance it had to carry in the last four years because of delay in the improvement. Property owners had not been able to give leases and thus had lost tenants, he explained.

Condemnation proceedings for the widening have been brought virtually to conclusion, but the city is awaiting payment of the net damages into court by the Greater St. Louis Corporation, which discounts benefit tax bills in street widening. Counsel for the corporation is engaged in the slow task of checking numerous legal details but a spokesman for the company said it was hoped the money could be paid soon. At the Comptroller's office it was said payment was expected in about a week.

After the money is turned over to the court the city will be at liberty to give 30 days' notice to vacate to owners of buildings which stand in the way of the widening, except that a longer period will be required in the case of any property held under lease. An ordinance is pending for widening and paving of the section between Eleventh and Fifteenth streets, where the city owns all the property involved. The entire scheme for widening from 40 to 100 feet, extends from Seventh street to Vandeventer avenue, with a cutoff to Sixth and Walnut streets and widening of Walnut to Third street.

ODD JOBS FOR 183 MEN FOUND IN CAMPAIGN HERE

Goal of $500 Set in Drive Which Is Part of Nation-wide Effort.

Odd jobs for 183 men have been obtained since Feb. 15 by volunteer workers conducting the local phase of a national job-finding campaign under auspices of the American Legion, American Federation of Labor and Association of National Advertisers, according to George W. Curran, chairman of the Legion's Unemployment Committee. Curran said the campaign here was just getting under way with the probability it would continue for several months. A goal of 2500 jobs has been set he said. Besides finding odd jobs, he said, workers are conferring with industrial executives to relieve the unemployment situation.

IN DIVORCE SUIT TELLS ABOUT INTERIM WIFE

Engineer Says He Was Married and Divorced During Separation.

Lawrence W. Stout, an illuminating engineer, testified yesterday in Circuit Judge Ryan's court, where he was asking for a divorce from his wife, with whom he has lived less than three months since their marriage 13 years ago, that during the period they were separated he married another woman and subsequently was divorced by her.

Stout, who works for the Laclede Power Co. and lives at 5024 Washington boulevard, said a friend told him Mrs. Ethel Davies Stout, daughter of a Ridgeway (Pa.) paper manufacturer, had divorced him in his absence. In 1925, he said, a young woman tricked him into marriage, only to divorce him three years later.

"The parents of my first wife objected to me," he said, "because they didn't think my social station was high enough. My wife and I took a 10-day honeymoon and then separated. We saw each other once or twice in 1922 and then I went to Texas. Last April I found out she had not divorced me and we went back together, living at 808 Leland avenue. In June we separated again and she told me she was sorry she had ever come to live with me. She nagged me all the time."

Mrs. Stout is opposing the divorce and has filed a cross bill. Her present home is in Rock Haven, Pa.

CITY PROBABLY WILL SUE FRISCO FOR $14,000 TAXES

Railroad Delinquent $150,000 in Missouri; Will Further Delay Payments in Three States.

The city of St. Louis probably will file suit against the Frisco Railroad for a $14,000 tax bill due since Jan. 1. The railroad's legal department, anticipating the suit, has offered to enter its appearance and avoid unnecessary costs.

E. T. Miller, vice president and general solicitor of the Frisco, announced yesterday that the road would further defer payment of Missouri taxes, a total of about $750,000, and of taxes in Kansas, $705,000, and in Alabama, $165,000. At the time of the postponement in January, it was said, payment might be made by March 1.

Miller said the continued postponement was due to "delay in concluding arrangements for meeting maturing fixed charges." It was announced last week that the Frisco had obtained $3,000,000 of the loan of $13,700,000 for which it applied to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

Suits for the delinquent taxes have been filed against the Frisco in some Missouri counties, Miller said, but none in Kansas or Alabama.

Church Votes Never to Support War

By the Associated Press.

DULUTH, Minn., March 1.—The congregation of the Endion Community Church at Duluth has voted "never to participate in or support another war. Only three votes were cast against the resolution, while only a few of the congregation did not vote. The sentiment of the congregation was transmitted to President Hoover.

Will Rogers

reports from JAPAN

HERE is the lowdown on the Far Eastern situation, by a "self-made diplomat" who knows none of the limitations of the official communique. With Will Rogers you check in on Tokio, Mukden, Harbin, Nanking, Shanghai, Hongkong—underneath his drollery you find a shrewd interpretation of conditions in the fighting zone, and the relations of Japan, China, Russia. It's a series as great and as timely as the famous letters which Will Rogers wrote from Europe in 1926. Read the Tokio letter today in THE SATURDAY EVENING POST.

"What highest authorities absolutely guarantee to my family that every claim made for sunshine vitamin-D Bond Bread is absolutely true?"

2. "What changes in civilization cause us to be unlikely to get enough sunshine vitamin-D, as nature originally intended?"

3. "Why does my table provide plenty of all other vitamins, and yet fail to provide enough sunshine vitamin-D, unless Bond Bread is used?"

4. "Why do members of my family absolutely need a constant and plentiful supply of sunshine vitamin-D, and especially right now?"

5. "How does sunshine vitamin-D help to insure better teeth, stronger bones, and the general well-being of my family?"

6. "Why do my children especially need sunshine vitamin-D, which Bond Bread provides?"

7. "Why do the older members of my family also need this vital food element that Bond Bread now contains?"

8. "Apart from its vitamin-D value—what are the three main reasons why my family has decided to use Bond Bread?"

Answer this question only if Bond Bread is being used in your home, or is about to be used.)

$10,000 FIRST PRIZE TEN THOUSAND OTHER PRIZES

On top of the absolute guarantees of two great research institutions, all claims for sunshine vitamin-D Bond Bread have been accepted by the American Medical Association Committee on Foods.

Contest Book gives all facts for answering these seven or eight questions. But talk to your doctor—your dentist, too. Everybody in every territory where Bond Bread is sold may enter—except bakery employees and their families. You don't have to buy anything. You don't have to be a trained "writer." Merit alone will win. Tying contestants receive full duplicate prizes. Contest closes May 9th.

1st Prize, $10,000 Cash; 2d Prize, $2,500; 3d Prize, $1,000; 573 other Cash Prizes, $4,600; 3,600 other Grand Prizes of Bond Bread (15 to

Knock That Cold In A Jiffy

Relief Now Almost Before You Know It

If you want quick relief from a cold, go back to first principles and use something you know does the business—don't start "trying" a lot of fancy ideas or remedies.

Get Hill's Cascara Quinine. A scientific formula made to do ONE THING WELL: to knock a cold in a jiffy, not to cure a hundred different things.

Take two tablets now. Then follow directions on box. Drink lots of water—that's all. Soon those mean, aching pains in head and body begin to go; the cold breaks up; poisons leave your system and you feel like a new person.

If it doesn't do that, your money back. Get a box now for a few cents.

Taxes Can Be Reduced

Two figures in the reports of the railroads for 1931 afford a striking contrast.

One is net income: 89 million dollars.

The other is taxes: 308 million dollars.

The tax collector thus got $3.46 of railway revenue to every dollar the owners themselves received.

Taxes can be reduced—for everybody—in only one way. That is for governments to spend less.

Railroads are taxable property, but other forms of transportation use property created by spending taxes.

Thus taxes make the railroads' rates higher and their competitors' rates lower.

Constructive criticism and suggestions are invited.

WOMAN FOUND GUILTY OF INSURANCE MURDER

Minimum 14-Year Sentence Recommended by Jury for Convicted Poisoner.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, March 1.—Mrs. Margaret Summers was convicted of murder last night by a jury which recommended a sentence of 14 years' imprisonment—the minimum. She was found guilty of poisoning her 17-year-old nephew, Thomas Meyer, to obtain $3630 insurance on his life. The State charged also that she had killed her husband and three other men in insurance plots.

Two hours before the case went to the jury, Mrs. Summers, a widow, 47 years old, denied from the witness stand that she had caused the death of Meyer. The State charged that she killed him with poison extracted from fly paper. The State did not ask for the death penalty.

Defense attorneys asked for a new trial. Judge Walter T. Stanton set arguments on the motion for March 11.

NEGRO WOMAN HURT JAN. 17 DIES FROM AUTO INJURIES

Lizzie Clark Succumbs at City Hospital No. 2, Fifteenth Street

Lizzie Clark, 34 years old, a Negro, 221 Winstanley avenue, East St. Louis, died yesterday at City Hospital No. 2 of internal injuries suffered Jan. 17 in a collision of two automobiles at Fifteenth street and Lucas avenue. She was riding with Ervin Cox, a Negro, and their machine collided with another automobile driven by Michael Carapella, 1901 Bacon street.

Capt. John Detwiler, Engine Co. No. 49, suffered a skull injury when he fell from a fire truck at Grand boulevard and Junata street while answering an alarm yesterday afternoon. He is at Alton Hospital in a serious condition. The alarm was turned in when the automobile of Patrolman Philip Josias caught fire in front of 3228 Junata street.

TEMPERATURE FOR FEBRUARY 9.8 DEGREES ABOVE NORMAL

On Warmest Day Thermometer Registered 82; Rainfall in Month 1.05 Inches.

The average temperature of February was 44.6 degrees, about 9.8 degrees warmer than normal, and the month was the second warmest February on record here, being surpassed only in 1930, when the average was 45.3 degrees.

The winter has been the warmest on record, the average temperature for December, January and February having 42.2 degrees, or 9.6 degrees above normal.

The warmest day last month was Feb. 10, when the temperature went to 82 degrees, and the coldest day was Feb. 4, when the temperature was 20. Only 12 days had temperatures below freezing and only two had temperatures below normal. The average of last week was 20 degrees above normal, making the weather of the week the equivalent of mid-April.

Rainfall during February was only 1.59 inches, of which 1.05 inches fell on Feb. 11. The amount is about 1.04 inches below normal for the month. Eight days of the month were clear, 10 partly cloudy and 11 cloudy.

FREED ON HABEAS CORPUS WRIT

Court Voids Commitment of F. J. Berkley for Failure to Testify.

The St. Louis Court of Appeals granted a writ of habeas corpus today to Fred J. Berkley, vice president of the Berry Motor Car Co., who applied for it when technically committed to jail for failure to appear at a deposition hearing.

Berkley's deposition was desired in the $40,000 suit of W. G. Coyle & Co. of New Orleans, against the estate of John W. Thompson, contractor. The court held the deposition hearings were continued without consent of each side and the commitment was void.

ASSAULT CHARGES DISMISSED

Charges of assault against James Milton, 4602 Cottage avenue, and George McDonald, Kinloch Park, St. Louis County, both Negroes, who were accused of an attack on John Flippin, Negro nonunion janitor at 704 Syracuse avenue, University City, last August, were dismissed today in Circuit Judge Nolte's court at Clayton.

A special prosecutor, who asked that the cases be nolle-prossed, said that the State had decided on that course after failing to get convictions of two other defendants charged with Milton and McDonald.

SUIT OVER $308 DEPOSIT

OF EMBEZZLER THROWN OUT
Scruggs Bank Sought to Determine Owner of Money in Oliver D. Chalmers' Name.

A suit by the Scruggs-Vandervoort-Barney Bank to determine whether $308.59 it has on deposit shall be turned over to the Frisco Railway or to Oliver D. Chalmers, who is serving a seven-year prison term for embezzlement from the Frisco, was thrown out of court by Circuit Judge Norton today.

Chalmers stole $150,521 from the railroad by appropriating checks from newspapers paying for transporting papers. He was manager of mail and express traffic. Chalmers, who pleaded guilty in 1920, banked the checks with the Scruggs-Vandervoort-Barney Bank and a suit by the Frisco to recover the amount from the bank is pending.

The $308.59 remains on deposit in Chalmers' account and the bank wished the Court to determine to whom it should go. Demurrers by the Frisco and Chalmers, claiming no cause of action had been shown in the suit, were sustained by Judge Norton.

$552,000 FOR NEGRO HOSPITAL APPROVED

Service Board Recommends Erection of Two Units of Institution.

An appropriation of $552,000 for the erection of the administration and first ward building of the new Homer G. Phillips City Hospital for Coloreds was approved by the Board of Public Service today. It will go before the Board of Aldermen. Construction is expected to be begun this spring.

For a boiler, laundry and service building, in the rear of the other structures, an appropriation of $800,000 has been made but construction of this unit has not been started. The hospital will face Whittier street, in the double block between St. Ferdinand and Kennerly avenues, and the site, purchased out of a $1,200,000 item of the 1923 bond issue, extends west to Goode avenue.

The hospital will replace the inadequate institution for Negroes operated by the city at Garrison avenue and Lawton boulevard. Negroes have been working for years to have the new hospital built. Today's appropriation bill will so reduce the fund that the erection of additional units will have to be deferred.

Brick, stone and terra cotta will be used for the exterior walls of the main buildings, President Kinsey of the Board of Public Service announced. The central administration building, measuring 50 by 160 feet, will be six stories high and will house the offices, pathological department, laboratories and obstetrical, surgical and radiological departments. Quarters for internes will be provided on the top floor.

The plan provides for immediate construction of ward building A, north of the administration unit, with a site for a future twin ward building B to the south. The ward structures will be five stories high, each having a connection with the administration building. The clinic and out-patient department will be in the basement. Each floor above the basement will comprise a central area of 50 by 84 feet for service functions and two wings, each about 40 by 144 feet, with about 20 beds to the wing. Thus the hospital will accommodate about 300 patients, with provision for the eventual doubling of its capacity.

MENUHIN VISITS ZOO; SAYS IT IS BETTER THAN HAMBURG'S

Young Violinist Also Drives Through Traffic, and Plans to See Hooverville.

Yehudi Menuhin, 15-year-old violinist, had a full day yesterday, practicing, visiting the Zoo and driving through traffic for the first time outside of his home city of San Francisco.

"I am having a fine time in St. Louis," Yehudi said. "and I am going back to the Zoo. It is much nicer than the gardens at Hamburg, Germany. The buildings and bear pits are modern and the animals have much more space. They are cleaner, too."

Yehudi posed for his picture with the trained chimpanzees, then went through the bird house and later saw the bears and elephants.

"I enjoyed watching the bears feed," he said, "and I'm going back and see the snakes and lions and tigers. But this afternoon I hope to drive to 'Hooverville.' I've read a lot about it and am curious to see it."

Yehudi, who is accompanied always by his father, Moshe Menuhin, will appear in concert at the Odeon tomorrow night under auspices of the League of Women Voters of St. Louis.

COURT UPHOLDS WILL HAVE WORD 'YOUTH' INSTEAD OF 'USE'

Recognizes Plea as to Clerical Error and Supports Claim of Beneficiary.

A decree construing a section of the will of Mrs. Lucile Cable Castleman was entered by Circuit Judge Hall today on petition of Mrs. Margot Alize Mizner and the Mississippi Valley Trust Co. as trustee.

Mrs. Castleman, who died six years ago leaving a valuable estate, provided that Mrs. Mizner was to be recipient of the income of a trust fund consisting of $5000 in bonds and $11,450 of Chicago Railway Equipment Co. stock. The will specified the income was to be for Mrs. Mizner's "youth and benefit." It was set forth in the suit that the word youth was a clerical error, use being the word intended, and the Court so holds.

The decree also gives the trustee and executor the right to sell the stock and reinvest the proceeds, no provision for such action having been clearly expressed in the will. The suit was directed against Mrs. Suzanne C. Mackay and Philander L. Cable, principal beneficiaries of the residue of the estate. They made no objection to the interpretation as asked.

Judge Cardoso in Washington.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—Judge Benjamin Nathan Cardoso of New York was in Washington yesterday but he did not go near the Supreme Court room at the Capitol. He did, however, visit Chief Justice Hughes and he made arrangements for temporary living and working arrangements during the rest of the term. He plans to take the oath on March 14. He was a luncheon guest of President Hoover yesterday.

U. S. REGULATION OF BUSES, TRUCKS URGED BY RAILROADS

Plea Made at I. C. C. Hearing on Plan for Control of Business Vehicles.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, March 1.—Railroad representatives today urged the Interstate Commerce Commission to ask Congress to provide complete regulation for commercial motor vehicles throughout the country.

The commission began hearing arguments on a proposed report by Examiner Leo J. Flynn, recommending that motor trucks and buses be regulated and that railroad representatives be permitted to enter the trucking business.

Alfred T. Thom Jr., general solicitor for the Association of Railway Executives, opened for the railroads by declaring the steam carriage did not want to destroy competition between the railroads and highway transport but that they felt reasonable regulation should be employed.

The principal reason underlying the action which resulted in regulation of railroads, Thom said, was to prevent rebates and unfair discrimination.

"What is wrong for the railroads," he added, "cannot be right

when done by the motor carriers."

C. D. Cass of the American Electric Railway Association said he thought the commission should have authority to require railroads, water transportation companies, bus and truck lines and air lines to join in through rates and joint rates. He also thought the commission should have complete control over hours of service of motor operations and the power to fix maximum and minimum rates.

NATIONAL CREDIT CORPORATION GIVING WAY TO NEWER BODY

Winding Up Work After Making $150,000,000 in Loans to Small Banks.

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, March 1.—The National Credit Corporation, of which Mortimer N. Buckley is the active head, has ended the most active phase of its rescue work and gradually is giving way to the new and larger governmentally sponsored organization, the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, it was learned in Wall Street today.

While formal figures have not been presented, it is estimated in banking circles that loans of the National Credit Corporation stand at about $150,000,000.

In advancing this money to smaller banks which sent out calls for assistance, the corporation's activity was likened by bankers to holding a dike against threatening flood until more permanent relief could be obtained.

The National Credit Corporation was formed last October. American banks having subscribed to the capital structure of $500,000,000.

Thus far the corporation has called for payment of $150,000,000 of these subscriptions, the bulk having come from New York and Boston banks. At the end of January the corporation had made 644 loans, some of them ranging down to $10,000.

Since the Reconstruction Finance Corporation was formed, the National Credit Corporation has had fewer calls for assistance.

JOHN BARRYMORE TO APPEAL $150,000 SUIT OVER LOAN

Actor and Wife Seek to Recover Money from Defunct Building and Loan Firm.

By the Associated Press. LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 1.—A notice of intention to appeal to the Federal Circuit Court in an effort to recover more than $150,000 they say they lent to the defunct Guaranty Building and Loan Association was filed yesterday by John Barrymore, the actor, and his wife, Dolores Costello.

Special Master in Chancery William Haslett ruled several months ago that claims of the Barrymores, together with hundreds of other creditors, should not be paid in advance of the claims of the 25,000 depositors in the association. The ruling was upheld by Federal Court.

In deciding to appeal, the Barrymores contended they lent the money to the association and did not deposit it and that therefore their claims should be acted on prior to attempts to pay off depositors. The association was in charge of Gilbert Beesmyer, who was sent to San Quentin prison after he pleaded guilty of embezzlements which wrecked the concern.

GLENN DEFENDS WILKERSON INJUNCTION IN RAIL STRIKE

Illinois Senator Testifies at Hearing on Chicago Judge's Nomination to U. S. Circuit Court.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, March 1.—The injunction issued by Judge James H. Wilkerson of Chicago in the railway shopmen's strike of 1922 was defended today by Senator Glenn (Rep.), Illinois, before the Senate Judiciary Committee considering Wilkerson's nomination to the Circuit Court. Glenn read extracts from bulletins issued to the striking workmen by labor heads asserting that their effect "must have been to incite violence."

Organized labor has protested that Wilkerson is prejudiced against unions, citing the injunction he issued in the shopmen's strike.

Chairman Borah of the subcommittee asked Glenn for evidence of violence justifying issuance of the injunction. Glenn read one bulletin which said "No one has a right to scab as long as there is a pool of water deep enough to drown him in or a rope long enough to hang his carcass with."

He asserted that this was issued at a time when there was "an inflamed situation with violence already prevalent."

The committee recessed until next Tuesday, when a delegation from the Chicago Bar Association will appear to reply to labor's charges that an injunction issued by Wilkerson against the Chicago Musicians' Union in 1928 was unwarranted.

WELSH NATIONALIST STUDENTS TEAR UNION JACK TO PIECES

Reprisal for Government Refusal to Let Red Dragon Fly on St. David's Day.

By the Associated Press. CARNARVON, Wales, March 1.—Welsh Nationalist students today hauled down the Union Jack from historic Carnarvon Castle and tore it to shreds in the market place.

Their action was a reprisal for the Government's refusal to accede to the Welsh Nationalist request that the Red Dragon flag of Wales, should fly over the castle today, St. David's day.

The students climbed the tower in the early morning and pulled down the Union Jack and nailed the Red Dragon to the mast, but officials later rehoisted the Union Jack. The students made another attempt and this time they seized the Union Jack, carried it in a procession through the town, and tore it to pieces in the market.

A number of ex-service men looked on the proceedings and expressed resentment at this treatment of the British national flag. At one time it looked as if a fight would develop between the two groups, but the excitement subsided when the students returned to Bangor, their home.

STORES AND OFFICES REOPEN IN INTERNATIONAL SETTLEMENT

Shoppers Crowd Business Places, Closed Month Ago to Embarrass Japanese in Shanghai.

By the Associated Press. SHANGHAI, March 1.—Stores and offices in the International Settlement reopened today on orders of Gen. Tsiang-ting-kai, Chinese commander, and shoppers turned out in large numbers.

Gen. Tsiang-ting-kai acted through the Chinese Chamber of Commerce on the theory that considerable inconvenience and monetary loss had resulted from the closing of the shops a month ago. He pointed out that although the stores closed in an effort to embarrass the Japanese, the month of idleness had not hit the Japanese pocketbook in the least.

The three big department stores were crowded with shoppers, but the service staff was considerably depleted. Whereabouts of many of the clerks, who lived in Chapel and Hongkew, were unknown.

Two Killed in Nicaraguan Clash. WASHINGTON, March 1.—The death of two Nicaraguan insurgents and the wounding of several others in a clash between 21 members of the Nicaraguan Guardia and insurgents at Nacascolo was reported to the navy today by Lieutenant Colonel C. B. Mattheus, Marine Corps, commanding the Nicaraguan National Guard detachment. One member of the Guardia was wounded.

Joint Conference of Social Service, and Religious Organizations Being Held

DEFEATED FEDERAL AID BILL

Prof. Bruno Says Was Carefully Planned Bring Uniform Handling of Pro

Unemployment relief agencies and the Federal aid bill was discussed today at a conference of labor, social, political and religious organizations held at Hotel Statler. Dean Sidney Sweet, of the Church-Cathedral presiding, spoke of the importance of the relief bill. He said that the bill was a permanent solution to the unemployment problem. He said that the bill was a great deal of work. He said that the bill was a great deal of work. He said that the bill was a great deal of work.

"Tired of Lip Service" The people are growing tired of lip service and are demanding action. "In these times of the level-headed does not rise to the control and steer straight goal, the ship may be wrecked."

"There is a rather deep-rooted conviction that our Government is primarily an instrument of organized wealth—that the Government of the people and for the people which Lincoln fought."

Control of the production of goods is similar to that of the War Industries Board. The purchasing power of the people is being controlled by the government. The government is controlling the purchasing power of the people. The government is controlling the purchasing power of the people.

He quoted Senator Hiram Johnson, who said that four per cent of the people of the United States own 80 per cent of the wealth of the country. He said that the government is controlling the wealth of the country. He said that the government is controlling the wealth of the country.

As means of wealth he favored the funds, unemployment old age pensioners, relief, and the five-day a six-hour working day. He said that the government is controlling the wealth of the country. He said that the government is controlling the wealth of the country.

"Federal aid." Prof. Bruno said that the federal aid bill was a great deal of work. He said that the federal aid bill was a great deal of work. He said that the federal aid bill was a great deal of work.

LOCAL RELIEF FOR IDLE INADEQUATE, SPEAKERS ASSERT

Joint Conference of Labor, Social Service, Political and Religious Organizations Being Held Here.

DEFEATED FEDERAL AID BILL PRAISED

Prof. Bruno Says Measure Was Carefully Planned to Bring Uniformity to Handling of Problem.

Unemployment relief by local agencies and the Federal Government was discussed today at a joint conference of labor, social service, political and religious organizations held at Hotel Statler.

Dean Sidney Sweet of Christ Church Cathedral presided at the opening session at which Marshall E. Kirkpatrick, Mayor of Granite City, spoke of the inadequacy of local relief, and Frank J. Bruno, professor of sociology at Washington University, outlined proposals for Federal aid in relief measures. Howard Y. Williams, executive secretary of the League for Independent Political Action, discussed depression remedies.

In opening the meeting, Louis Martin Wolf, secretary of the Social Justice Commission, expressed the hope that the conference would develop into a permanent organization to function so long as unemployment relief constitutes an emergency.

"Tired of Lip Service." "The people are growing tired of lip service and are demanding action," Wolf said. "In times like these it is the duty of the citizen not to rise to the task, assume control and steer straight toward a goal, the ship may easily be wrecked."

"There is a rather extensive and deep-rooted conviction among us that our Government is becoming, primarily, an instrument for the preservation of the privileges of organized wealth—that it is no longer the Government of the people, by the people and for the people, which Lincoln fought to preserve."

Control of the production and capitalization of industry in a manner similar to that exercised by the War Industries Administration, the distribution of wealth to increase the purchasing power of labor were advocated by Williams as safeguards against depression. As typical of the over-expansion of industry, he stated that shoe factories of the United States can produce 500,000,000 pairs of shoes a year, but can sell only 300,000,000. Most industries, he said, are over capitalized from two to 10 times.

Favors Five-Day Week. He quoted Senator Borah as having said that four per cent of the people of the United States control 50 per cent of the wealth and added that "Government has a duty to see that a greater share of the wealth produced by workers should go to the pockets of labor."

As means of redistributing wealth he favored Federal relief funds, unemployment insurance, old age pensions, child labor legislation, and the five-day week with a six-hour working day. "The Government," he said, "should use its taxing power to skim off the great wealth built up by monopoly and exploitation which has been controlled by the few at the expense of the many."

"Federal aid," Prof. Bruno said, can be thought of only as a stop gap by which those suffering from unemployment are more likely than otherwise to receive relief. In the present situation, he said, the inherent limitations of locally administered relief are becoming apparent.

The La Follette-Costigan bill, recently defeated in the Senate, Bruno said, was "a carefully planned effort to bring uniformity and some measure of adequacy into the handling of relief of the unemployed this year and next."

Increase in Dependency. As unemployment continues, he said, more and more find their resources exhausted so that while in the early period perhaps only 5 or 10 per cent are dependent on relief agencies, "in the third winter, such as we are now experiencing, the ratio may jump to 30 or 40 per cent." Relief expenditures in the larger cities, he added, have been multiplied by four in the past two years.

"I think it may be taken for granted," Bruno said, "that any Federal aid will increase the cost considerably. That, however, should be balanced by positive accomplishments. If it assured the adequate care of the unemployed and that could have been secured in no other way, it would be worth even a great deal of wasted money."

Rabbi Ferdinand Iserman of Temple Israel spoke of "Rugged Individualism" at the luncheon session, and the Rev. J. W. Maguire, president of St. Viator's College, Fourbourn, Ill., of "Taxing Our Way Out of Unemployment."

Britain Turns Back on Free Trade Policy of Centuries; Puts Tariff Into Effect in Brief Ceremony

In Norman French, "Le Roy le Veult," King's Assent Is Announced in House of Lords—Storm Defeats "Dumping Fleet."

By the Associated Press. LONDON, March 1.—"Le Roy le veult." With these words (the King wishes it) in ancient Norman French ceremony in the House of Lords, England turned its back today on centuries of free trading and turned to a policy of tariff protection.

The pronouncement of the ancient phrase was the culminating act of a brief ceremony by which King George gave royal assent to the Government's bill, imposing a general 10 per cent duty on most of the Nation's imports, which had been approved by the two Houses of Parliament.

The final ceremony was brief. The throne was uncovered as a symbol of the King's presence. Three royal commissioners—Lord Chancellor Sankey, Lord Stanhope and Lord Darnley—sat on a bench in front of it. The Lord Chancellor announced the King's approval of the bill and Great Britain officially became a protectionist country.

The probability that Viscount Snowden and other free trade members of the Cabinet would leave the Government if it used the revenue derived from the new import duties for a reduction in the income tax caused considerable discussion in political circles. The opinion was confidently expressed that the revenue would be used for that purpose. Political commentators emphasized that the resignations of the free trade section of the National Government might have far-reaching consequences. Speculation regarding these resignations was based chiefly on Snowden's speech yesterday before the House of Lords in which he bitterly attacked a recent hint by Walter Runciman, president of the Board of Trade, that the new duties might be used to relieve the direct taxpayer of some of his burden. Such a move, the former Chancellor of the Exchequer said, would be a definite breach of the economy act which made wage cuts last fall and of the principle of equality of sacrifice.

His hearers took this and other references in the address which were known to be in accord with the views of Sir Herbert Samuel and other Cabinet free traders, as a direct threat of resignation unless all thought of relieving the income taxpayer from the proceeds of the new duties were abandoned.

A raging gale on the North Sea and the English Channel saved the "dumping armada" from reaching port inside the deadline, 5 p. m. yesterday.

talks by Bishop Scarlett, August Hill, president of St. Louis County Farm Bureau; Dr. Joseph Klamon of Washington University's School of Commerce and Finance; and Prof. Elmer Arndt of Eden Seminary.

The meeting is to close with a session at 8 o'clock, open to the public. Mrs. Mary Ryder, president of the Joint Council of Women's Auxiliaries, is to speak of a shorter work day. Father Maguire will discuss the proposed $5,000,000 bond issue for public works, and Henry F. Schmal, secretary-treasurer of the International Photo-Engravers Union, will speak of taxation of high incomes. Maurice Caskey, secretary of the Building Trades Council, will discuss municipal housing projects financed with Federal aid to eliminate slum districts.

11 WHO FAILED TO EXAMINE SOVIET INVENTIONS CONVICTED

Light Sentences of "Enforced Labor" Prescribed in One of "Demonstration" Trials.

By the Associated Press. MOSCOW, March 1.—Another of Soviet Russia's "demonstration" trials to make examples of crimes for their effect on the masses as a whole has just ended with conviction of 11 employees of an invention bureau for neglecting to examine inventions.

The trial before the supreme court lasted 25 days and resulted in light sentences ranging from a month to a year of "enforced labor," which means continuance of present work with reduced pay.

Four were acquitted in the trial which developed that thousands of inventions and suggestions for improvement of the transport department, where the bureau is, were never inspected.

One inventor died before he could get action on his suggestion. The light sentence was given apparently because the offenses were committed before 1926 and the employees already had been reprimanded.

I. C. C. EXAMINER RECOMMENDS POWER REVERSE FOR ENGINES

Proposes That Railway Be Required to Equip Large Locomotives With Device.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, March 1.—Examiner John L. Rogers today recommended to the Interstate Commerce Commission that it require railroads to equip certain classes of locomotives with power reverse gears.

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, through A. Johnston, grand chief, filed a complaint with the commission that many railroads were using locomotives equipped only with hand reverse gears and that this was dangerous to employees. A long list of accidents caused by use of the hand gear was submitted by the brotherhood. The railroads submitted a list of injuries caused by the power gear.

The railroads also insisted that under the present financial conditions, railroads should not be called on to spend additional sums. It would cost about $400 each to equip locomotives with the machinery which simplifies the work of stopping an engine in an emergency.

The examiner recommended that all road locomotives of 150,000 pounds or more and yard engines of 120,000 or more be equipped with power gears. This would affect about 17,597 of its 31,597 locomotives equipped with hand-reverse gears.

PLEAS FOR POSTPONEMENT OF NEW MEXICAN LABOR LAW

40,000 Foreigners Face Loss of Jobs in Move to Favor Native Labor.

By the Associated Press. MEXICO CITY, March 1.—A delicate problem was before Mexico today with the application of the new labor law which requires that 90 per cent of the employees of all concerns be Mexicans.

About 40,000 persons will be thrown out of employment immediately if the letter of the law is applied. For that reason Government toleration for a limited time is expected as a result of scores of petitions for a postponement.

The law was put into effect last Aug. 29, but it allowed a six-month period for application of certain provisions. It provided that "in all undertakings, whatever their nature, the employer shall not employ less than 90 per cent of Mexican workers in each of the technical and unskilled classes, unless the respective labor board authorizes, with references to technical employees, a temporary reduction of this proportion."

Exemption is provided for managers, directors, administrators, superintendents and general officers of concerns involved.

EMERGENCY ROAD FUND BILL IS TEMPORARILY DELAYED

Senator Oddie Says There Is No Question That It Will Be Reported Favorably.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, March 1.—The Senate Postoffice Committee today delayed temporarily the report on the Democratic emergency road fund bill, but Chairman Oddie said it would be brought out quickly and there was "no question of reporting it favorably."

Action was delayed at the request of Senator Glass (Dem.), Virginia, who wishes to urge an increase in the amount given national parks and to speak on convict labor clauses.

Two amendments were agreed to by the committee today, submitted by Hayden (Dem.), Arizona. One would remove the $15,000 a mile limitation on cost of construction, and the other would permit money to be spent in towns with a population of 2500 or more. This latter provision was looked upon as necessary for adequate unemployment relief.

Britain to Repay $100,000,000 More to U. S., Wall Street Hears. By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, March 1.—Reports were current in Wall street block-quarters today that the British Government, which last Aug. 28 borrowed $400,000,000 from American and French banks, will repay $100,000,000 or more of that credit at an early date, possibly tomorrow.

Private advice indicated that the British Treasury was in sufficiently strong position to make such a payment although the credit does not come due until Aug. 28. Great Britain's success in avoiding inflation after leaving the gold standard was said to have made such repayment possible.

TARIFF LEGISLATION GETS NO. 1 STATUS IN SENATE

Right of Way Given to Bill Taking Away Flexible Power of President.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, March 1.—Tariff legislation has received a preferred status on the Senate's program. The Republican Steering Committee decided to give the right of way to the Democratic tariff bill which would take away from the President the authority to change rates under the flexible provisions of the law.

Following that the committee decided that the Reed resolution calling for an investigation of the effect of depreciation of foreign currencies on importations should be considered. The Hale bill, calling for the strongest navy allowed by existing treaties, was placed third on the program.

GERMANY'S BANK DEBTS TO BE PAID BY NEW SYSTEM

Instead of Rigid Rule, Condition of Money Market Will Determine Amount Sent Creditors.

By the Associated Press. BERLIN, March 1.—The "standstill agreement" covering $1,275,680,000 of Germany's bank debts abroad, ended last night.

A new credit arrangement, which contains several features not covered in the old agreement, went into effect today and will run for an indefinite period. Under it, Germany has the co-operation of its principal private creditors, including the United States, Great Britain, France, Italy, Holland, Switzerland, Belgium, Czechoslovakia, Denmark and Norway.

Among the changes is a provision whereby Germany will not be held to a rigid rule for sending so much money each month out of the country. Instead, a committee representing the foreign creditors will study Germany's export trade and the condition of the money market, and will decide how much money can be sent at a time and when. This arrangement will be flexible enough, it is hoped by bankers, to prevent undue hardships on German finance.

Equally important, it is said, is an arrangement that will permit foreign creditors to transfer part of their cash advances into permanent investments in German industry. Until now, Germany has declined to encourage foreign capitalists to acquire substantial blocks of its leading enterprises, but, subject to final approval by the German Reichsbank, it has consented to make exceptions.

Repayment of the huge total due in short-term credits is expected over a long period. In the last year, under trying conditions, Germany repaid 10 per cent of the original indebtedness. Leading Wall street bankers express belief that Germany will make faster progress in the future.

TROUBLE DECREASING IN INDIA, HOUSE OF COMMONS IS TOLD

Sir Samuel Hoare Tells, However, of Move to Extend Boycott to Banks.

By the Associated Press. LONDON, March 1.—Sir Samuel Hoare, Secretary of State of India, told the House of Commons yesterday that reports from India showed a falling off in opposition to the Government in some quarters.

This has been reflected, he said, by a drop in the number of court convictions, while there has been no increase in the Nationalist activities anywhere in the provinces. Attempts have been made at boycott of British goods, chief weapon of the Nationalists, to include banks, Sir Samuel said.

Reports from Kashmir, where the Moslems rioted recently against the Hindu Maharajah, Sir Hari Singh, say the situation there has improved.

U. S. ARCHITECT TO MOSCOW

New Yorker to Assist in Building of Palace of Soviets.

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, March 1.—Hector O. Hamilton, New York architect, who shared first prize for the best designs submitted for a Palace of the Soviets in Moscow, said tonight he would sail Friday for Russia to assist in the construction.

Hamilton said the first prize amounted to $15,000 at nominal exchange rates instead of $100,000 as stated in the Moscow dispatch, as well as an architect's fee for construction purposes. He will work with two Russian architects in putting up the structure.

THE GREEN PASTURES' FINE NEGRO FANTASY

Story of the Old Testament Excellent Drama and an Entertainment Milestone.

THE GREEN PASTURES, a play in two acts and in scenes, by Marc Connelly from sketches by Robert Bradford, presented at the American Theatre with the following principal members of the cast: Mr. Deshae, Charles H. Moore, Fred May, Anna Mae Fritz, Archangel, J. A. Shuler, Gabriel, L. D. Green, The Law, Richard B. Harrison, Choir: Lead—McKee, Reeves, Adam, Daniel, L. Harrison; Eve—Gertrude Gooding; Cain—Thomas Russell; Cain's Girl—Bonnie Washington; Zeba, Edna M. Harris; Cain's Wife—James P. Miller; Noah's Wife—Susie Sutton; Whitely, Hildred Williams; Abraham, J. Shuler; Isaac, Charles H. Moore; Jacob, William McFarlane; Moses, Alton Aaron; Zipporah, Mercedes Gilbert; Aaron, Randall; The General, Stanish Morris; The Admiral, Charles H. Moore; Joseph, Stanish Morris; King of Babylon, Emory Richardson; Pharaoh, Stanish Morris; High Priest, J. Homer Fitt; Hagar, Daniel L. Harrison.

By H. H. WHEATLEY.

"THE GREEN PASTURES," Marc Connelly's Negro spiritual which brings Heaven and Earth together in the shape of an episodic dramatic fantasy came to the American Theatre last night to begin a two-weeks' engagement which bids fair to establish a commendable record in these days, and nights, of great stress for the playhouses. For a large, if slightly too heavy audience, Mr. Connelly's religious fantasy has been enthusiastically and listened, reverently at all times, to the unfolding of a story of the Old Testament which began, after a short prologue in a Negro Sunday school, with the Lord leaving a heavenly and angelic fish fry to create the Earth and Adam and Eve and carrying on to the wicked city of Babylon where Jehovah returns, in the shape of a sky-dancer, to the skies to realize that only through suffering—His own suffering—can His creatures below hope for redemption. There the play ends most effectively, with the Lord surrounded by His dusky angel and "heavenly choir."

The prologue shows the Rev. Mr. Deshae teaching his Sunday morning class of pickaninies the lesson for the day from the Bible. As he gets into his story of the creation of the little church and the children fade out of sight and the tale is unfolded, not by the minister's telling, but in action. You see the Garden of Eden, the building of the Ark, the flood, the march of Moses and his band to the Promised Land, the destruction of the city of Sodom and the wickedness of Babylon with its caravans and eternal flappers and jazz bands.

In between these earthly scenes there are views of Heaven with the Lord's private office attended by the Angel Gabriel and angelic scrubwomen whose wings are covered with calico while they perform their daily chores.

And always there is the Heavenly Choir, a collection of magnificent singers who aid, greatly, in the unfolding of the story which is told in the simple manner of the Far South Negroes who believe that Heaven is a very definite and city-like place and that the Lord and Gabriel and Noah and the prophets are all very real and very simple human beings.

So much has been written—and read by theater goers—of the performance of Richard B. Harrison as the "Law" that little in the way of praise for his impressive interpretation of the divine role need be added here. In the hands of a less skillful actor this part, upon which the entire play might easily fall to the plane of a sacrilegious farce comedy, but Harrison keeps it, at all times, a very lovely and entirely reverent drama.

It should be gathered from this that "The Green Pastures" is a religious drama only for persons who believe in the Book from cover to cover. It is good theater and good entertainment for everyone and provides an entire evening of solid enjoyment without a moment of dullness, a rare combination in these days of unregenerate and uninteresting stage offerings.

Next to the performance of Harrison in the role which overshadows everything else, great credit should go to the Noah of Tutt Whitney and to Daniel Haynes for his Hezdril. And the Gabriel of D. D. Green, who is the third Negro actor to undertake that role following the untimely death of his predecessors, was a fine piece of work, as indeed was the performance of every one of the members of the very large cast.

"The Green Pastures" is full of beauty and humor and is immensely impressive in its simplicity marking another milestone in the way of the theater.

UPTON CLOSE FAVORS BOYCOTT OF JAPAN

Otherwise, Author Says U. S. Must Engage in Costly Armament Race.

The United States must choose between enforcing respect for the machinery of peace in the Orient now or engage in a costly armament competition with Japan later, Upton Close, author of "The Revolt of Asia," said yesterday at Hotel Chase before his lecture on the Chinese-Japanese situation before the Junior League.

Close, who wants the United States to join in an economic boycott of Japan until it refers its dispute with China to the International Court, said that such a boycott would cause rebellion in Japan within two weeks.

"The Japanese people, many of whom are liberals opposed to the military oligarchy now running that country, would revolt and demand peace," he said. "The troops would have to return from China to put down the rice riots just as they did in 1919 and the Japanese Emperor would be compelled to assert himself and put an end to the strife."

Investigated Japanese Invasion.

Close, whose real name is Josef Washington Hall and who served as an investigating officer for the United States Government during the Japanese invasion of Shantung in 1916-19, left Manchuria last November on his present lecture tour.

"No matter what the outcome of the present controversy," Close said, "the United States is bound to be involved. If we refuse to join the other nations in a combination to insure that international agreements be respected, we must rely on force. That means a big navy and a heavy cost to the taxpayers for a long time. It would involve armament races with Japan, Russia, and even England."

Unless the United States should aid in enforcing international agreements, he said, there would be nothing for China to do but to turn to Russia for aid, resulting eventually in a contest between the United States and a powerful Communist force in the Orient.

"It is important to bear in mind that this clash of Asiatic nations is but an episode in a battle for the dominance of the Pacific—a struggle which may force us to give up the Philippines unless we keep in close touch with developments," Close declared. "More clashes are inevitable and it is up to us to aid in seeing that the nations maintain good faith. We must guard against the Soviet influence and take part in shaping the Asiatic countries so that their development will be a credit instead of a deterrent to international civilization. The present doctrine of 'might is right' as practiced by Japan is a poor foundation for a new era in the Pacific."

Close said the present Japanese attitude was part of a 20-year plan to win the dominance of the Pacific. Japan is obligated to present its disputes to the International Court rather than employ the present "strong-arm stuff," he asserted.

A strong liberal party in Japan, he said, opposed the activities of the military clique which decided to use force in Manchuria instead of arbitrating the country's controversy with China.

How Oriental Mind Works.

"The economic boycott is the cheapest and most definite way out for our nation," Close said, "and it is our fixed policy to express belief in the binding quality of international agreements whether we belong to the League of Nations or not."

"An economic embargo is the only thing which would frighten Japan, because Japan practices realistic diplomacy. It pays no attention to notes. And every time we say, 'Please don't use the international concession as a military base,' it goes right ahead and does it, reasoning in Oriental fashion that we really mean it to do so, since we fail to enforce our request although we have forces present to do so. That's the Oriental way of thinking."

"Of course, if we join an international boycott against Japan we take the risk that Japan will go to war with us. But we take that risk anyway. If Japan continues to disregard international obligations and its military party grows more powerful we may be sure that eventually war will come."

CHILDREN IN 'GREEN PASTURES' CAST GO TO SCHOOL DAILY.

Twelve children, ranging in ages from 9 to 13 years, who with their parents are members of the "The Green Pastures" at the American Theatre this week, attend school each day under the direction of Charles W. Woods, former Tuskegee Institute instructor.

Woods, who travels with the players from city to city during its tour, holds his classes each day except Saturday from 10 a. m. to 12, and from 1 until 4 p. m. In St. Louis, the children are meeting at the Pine street branch, Y. M. C. A., 2338 Pine street, where they also are given physical instruction by the local director.

Why doesn't she preserve the ELASTICITY that makes stockings WEAR?

DOESN'T SHE KNOW what causes those runs that ruin stockings and waste money? New stockings give under strain, because they are elastic. They stretch and spring right back again. But if this precious elasticity is destroyed, the silk threads, instead of giving, break under strain. Then come those ruinous runs!

Fit, too, is spoiled. The lifeless threads sag, causing unsightly wrinkles, crooked seams. Lux is made to preserve elasticity. That is why it offers the sure way to make stockings fit and WEAR.

*The Lux Way to make stockings last twice as long

Wash this 2-minute way: 1. One teaspoon of Lux diamonds for each pair. 2. Add lukewarm water to Lux, squeeze through stockings, rinse. Don't rub with cake soap. It destroys the elasticity of the silk. With Lux there's no rubbing. Press in a few dry Lux diamonds on stubborn spots.

Avoid ordinary soaps—cakes, powders, chips. These often contain harmful alkali which weakens and fades silk. Lux has no harmful alkali. If it's safe in water it's safe in Lux. Don't use too-warm water—it fades color. With Lux you use lukewarm water—the tissue-thin Lux diamonds dissolve instantly in it.

BEAUTY for your hands—use Lux in the dishpan. Keeps them soft white for 14 a day.

Wheat values continued to sag, but the crop experts figures were issued yesterday's finish. Corn, however, showed relative firmness, although the new estimate of stocks of corn on hand was 1,079,000,000 bu. compared with 1,090,000,000 bu. reported a year ago. Presently, corn traders who were still in the market took advantage of the available opportunity to buy. Oats fell. Provisions were neglected.

MONEY OF WOOD—AND IT'S GOOD

In village of Tenino, south of Seattle, the closing of local bank left townsfolk without any currency. The Chamber of Commerce solved the difficulty by printing a sort of script on spruce veneer to the amount of 25 per cent of each deposit in the bank. The money is accepted without question in local stores.

DIGGING FOUR MEN OUT OF SNOWSLIDE

Four men lost their lives when warm weather and torrential rains caused an avalanche on the snow-covered hills near Seattle's hydro-electric project on the Skagit River last week.

FIANCEE OF SWEDISH PRINCE

The Bridge Forum

Delegates From Local Clubs to Control the National Organization.
—BY SHEPARD BARCLAY—

BRIDGE as a competitive sport is taking a leaf out of the book of golf. Its governing body, the American Bridge League, shortly will be controlled chiefly by the clubs of the country, through their delegates. Heretofore, membership has been entirely on a basis of individuals, which has not been nearly so satisfactory as the new arrangements are expected to be.

A general plan for reorganization was suggested at the annual meeting in December by a committee headed by George Reith of New York, who was the first to propose it. The league meeting adopted the plan in principle unanimously, and voted the creation of a committee with power to take all necessary steps to work out the details and put it in force. Sir Derrick Werneher of New York is chairman of the committee, whose other members are Capt. Fred G. French of Philadelphia and Henry P. Jaeger of Cleveland, past presidents of the organization.

With their labors now completed, the detailed plans are being sent to recognized clubs in all parts of the country, together with the invitation to become member clubs. Any club of standing, whether bridge be its primary interest or only one of many interests, is eligible. The dues for a full-fledged "delegate club" are to be $20 a year. Individual players who are not members of a club may join and have a voice by paying dues of $2; any group of 15 such members may be represented by a delegate. Clubs not desiring full-fledged "delegate membership" may become "associate clubs" with dues of $5, having the voting power of two individual members. Thus it is hoped that all interests will be proportionately represented in the government of the game.

The delegates to the annual meeting each year will elect an executive committee of 15, which will have full authority to control the league's affairs between meetings. This will include, in addition to the conduct and sanctioning of tournaments, the adjustment of all controversial questions which may arise in connection with the game as a sport. It is hoped by the league's supporters that it will be a more truly representative in character and be established as "the final authority" with all competitions of importance under its jurisdiction, either directly or indirectly.

The United States Golf Association has been operated successfully along the same lines for years, so that the general scheme is in no sense a pure novelty. Bridge now has several times as many players as golf, and the number and size of organized competitions is growing amazingly every season. It is about time for this step to be taken to give the members of the many club in the proper voice in the control of the game, after them the benefits of sound government and with the same step bring to the game the organized support of such groups.

Sir Derrick Werneher, chairman of the committee, wishes no club to be overlooked because it did not receive an invitation and the detailed outline of the new plan. It will be furnished to any club which desires it, for the purpose is to have the league as near to all-inclusive as possible.

Bridge Builders.
EDNA J. WEEKS. This talented woman with prematurely silver hair is the pioneer in making the great department stores important bridge centers. Several years ago, when she first essayed it in Brooklyn, most of her friends thought she was attempting the impossible. But the bridge teas, lectures, classes and tournaments she instituted were an instantaneous success. So was the new bridge department she established, where everything connected with the game could be purchased without the necessity of running all around the store for various items.

What she accomplished there has been an inspiration to others in all parts of the country. The big department store in any city which does not now make the most of its facilities to serve the vast bridge-playing public is out of date and cannot lay claim to completeness of service to its patronage.

While an associate of the late Wilbur C. Whittehead, Mrs. Weeks became a keen judge of the bridge-minded, and the novelties that she instituted at the big New York store where she now operates are recommended to success because of the keen way they are planned. She is one of the game's real assets.

Rash Overbidding.
Mrs. P. C. Morgan gives one of the best—worst—examples of rash overbidding we have seen. It was by the other side, a friendly couple opposing her and her husband in an evening of nine rubbers. They apparently could not bear seeing the Morgans win a rubber.

After North's two-spade bid, it was East's turn. If any player other than East now declared it would be out of turn. Therefore, North's statement constituted a bid out of turn. The penalty for this, if attention is called to it promptly, is that the bid is void and the contracting proceeds from the last proper declaration. North's two-spade bid, with his partner, South, barred from further participation in the contracting. This very properly has the effect of preventing South from taking advantage of the unauthorized information given him by his partner's out-of-turn bid.

In a pilot game of contract, two players announced they would have to depart at a stated time whether a rubber was then completed or not, which was agreeable to the others. When that time arrived, each side had won a game. One of the other two players, who were partners at the time, claimed 500 points, saying it was the "rule" that, when a game was broken up and each side had a game, the remaining players would receive such a bonus. Is that correct?

Mistakes Made By the Experts

North had opened the bidding on this hand with a second hand no trump. South had forced with three spades, which North took to four. South then to six. The heart ace was led, followed by the heart 3, covered by the jack and king. Now let us see how the national tournament player in the South failed to make the slam.

SHANGHAI, March 3 (day).—China's Nineteenth Army was retreating tonight, after five weeks fighting at Shanghai pressed by the Japanese.

The Japanese said soldiers were unable to stand the force of the aerial and naval attack in retreat. Chinese military officers said it was a "tactical retreat," and that they would establish new defense lines 10 miles west of the fighting there.

They were falling back, to protect their lines, which were under the landing of a large Japanese troops at Lih up the Yangtze River, immediately began a new drive.

Observers estimated Chinese troops were part of the "tactical retreat." Chinese troops two miles not falling back, the Japanese Pushed.

The Japanese, reinforced the last few days, moved up their advance from Lihuo, on the Yangtze, the Japanese day formed the greatest somewhat irregular ward and ending in the city of Chapei, adjacent Shanghai International zone. On this long line Japanese, infantrymen and gunners followed the artillery remained at Chapei, which had been reduced to wreckage and was deserted by 6 o'clock tonight. The battered area was being whatever was left of the rear guard kept firing with the Japanese wildness.

Soldiers and civilians fled the borders of the National Settlement and continued on page 41.
